Khaleda witnesses juvenile rally Children asked to get ready for future leadership

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia witnessed a colourful children and juvenile rally held in the sunny winter morning at the National Stadium in celebration of the Victory Day on Monday, reports BSS.

As Begum Zia entered the Stadium through the VIP gate, the jam-packed enthusiastic audience clapped and cheered to greet her.

The tiny tots in white dresses, standing at the entrance, received the Prime Minister with flowers in hands. The Girls Guide members escorted Begum Zia to the rostrum of the stadium which was decorated with colourful flags and festoons.

The Prime Minister hoisted the national flag as the Ansar band played the National Anthem. She released a huge replica of pigeon, symbol of peace, fugged with colourful balloons. As soon as the Prime Minister released the pigeon, hundreds of multi-coloured balloons were released simultaneously amid an attractive fire work.

The children and juveniles who participated in the rally presented the Prime Minister with a crest.

take up the leadership of tomorrow and bring smile on the faces of the deprived people.

She told them, "Our heroic freedom fighters had made supreme sacrifices to build a happy future for you. Study the history of the War of Independence when you grow up and learn to love the country."

The Prime Minister further told them that she was seeing the future Bangladesh in them. She said the nation was also looking forward to the children of today keenly. With the hope that they would remove the sorrow of the country through their genius and merit.

She said the Victory Day festival would be crowned with success when we will be able to bring smile to all.

After the speech, the Prime Minister witnessed an attractive march past presented by the children of different schools and other institutions. Home Minister Abdul Matin Chowdhury and Najmul Alam Siddiqi Deputy Commissioner of Dhaka were also present on the rostrum.
