China's first free trade zone opens Jan '92

SHANGHAL, Dec 27: Approved by the state council, China's first free trade zone is scheduled to open next month in Outer Gaogiao of the Pudong Development Zone in Shanghai city, east China, reports

The construction of the first phase of the separation wall of the free trade zone was completed Wednesday.

The first phase of the zone covers an area of 0.7 square kilometers and a 4-kilometerlong separation wall.

Overseas firms are allowed to set up trade agencies to conduct business of re-exports, exports and imports of raw materials and machine parts manufactured by foreignfunded firms in the zone. It enjoys more preferential treatment.

A total of nine projects involving funds from Hong Kong. Japan, Singapore and Taiwan have been approved to be built in the zone. The projects, mainly of electronics, electric household appliances, food processing and storing, have a total investment of 100 million US dollar and cover an area of 210,000 square metres, according to Ruan Yanhua, General Manager of the Shanghai Outer Gaoqiao Free Trade Zone Development Co.

Ruan said a customs office will be set up in the free trade

The zone plans to gradually expand its areas by 1.68 square kilometers in 1993 and another 2.8 square kilometer in 1994.

Some legal provisions and regulations have been announced by China customs and the Shanghai municipal government to guarantee the legal rights and interest of both Chinese and Overseas investors in the Free Trade Zone.

Rains hit crops hard

The unseasonal rain that continued for the last three days has caused extensive damages to potato, mustard and other rabi crops on thousands of acres of land across the country, reports UNB.

Reports reaching Dhaka from different districts said chilly weather compounded by intermittent rainfall compelled serious disruption in normal life in many urban and rural places.

The downpour, occasionally accompanied with gusty wind, began last Tuesday and paralysed much of the business activities in Sherpur, Jhenidah, Brahmanbaria, Narail, Bogra and other districts. Shopkeepers kept their shops closed and transports were thin on the roads.

In Jamalpur, Water Development Board recorded 50 mm rainfall Thursday. Many low-lying parts of the district were submerged.under water due to the rainfall which also threatened standing crops on vast tracts of agriculture land. Local Met office in Brahmanbaria recorded 4.05 mm of rain during the last 48 hours ending Thursday. Met office in Bogra recorded a 100 mm rainfall during the period bringing in total disruption in normal life in the town and adjoining areas. Three people - Noor Mohammad and Nurul Alam of Sadar upazila, and Nurul Islam of Shibganj upazila were electrocuted Tuesday night. Prices of essentials have also recorded a sharp rise as road communication to and from the district came to a sudden standstill. In Sherpur, heavy rainfall has turned the roads muddy disrupting road communication between Nakla and Jhenaighati upazilas of the district. Dhaka bound bus services from the district were also suspended due to the inclement weather.

Reports from Jhenidah said untimely rainfall damaged crops, particularly the seasonal ones, in several parts of the district. Seed beds for boro paddy were also submerged by the rain water.

Sufferings of the poor due to cold bite has increased immensely for want of warm cloths, the reports added.

In Narail, bore seedlings on about 200 acres of land were affected inflicting a huge loss to the cultivators. The untimely rain has also damaged 30 lakh of unbaked brick at 15 fields of the district causing a loss of Tk 60 lakh to the owners.

Mustard crops on 45,000 acres and potato crops on 9,000 acres of land were heavily damaged by the torrential · rain, Agriculture Extension Division said.
