ISLAMABAD, Mar 21: Millions watching televi-sion or huddled around radio sets cities and villages across Pakistan rejoiced over national team's sensational World Cup victory against New Zealand Saturday. reports AFP.

"I was so tense all along that when the final moment came, I had a relapse of my migraine problem," said a housewife who followed every ball of the exciting game with her entire family.

Troops assembled here for a National Day parade on Monday shouted Allah-o-Akbar (Allah is Great), while children fanned out dancing in the strects.

Despite the match's early morning start, the market places and homes were full of life because of Ramadan, during which Muslims get up long before dawn to eat and begin their daily fast.

"It was a marvellous victory," said Zaheer Abbas, a former Pakistan cricket captain, in Karachi.

He praised Inzamam-ul-Haq for his breezy knock of 60 as the real hero of the triumph that put Pakistan in the finals of the World Cup for the first

Abbas, a master batsman in his day, was optimistic that Pakistan would lift the World Cup, echoing the feelings of former Indian captain Sunil Gavaskar whose comments have been widely highlighted

*At one stage it appeared that we have lost the match when Imran Khan and out-ofform Salim Malik were back in the pavilion, but Inzam and Javed Miandad turned the table against the Kiwis." Abbas

Sadiq Mohammad, also a former Test player, said he was certain of Pakistan's victory in the finals, adding "Our batting has clicked with Javed Miandad in form having recovered from his back problem."

A former Pakistani cricket selector. Salahuddin Ahmed, said, "Pakistan's second victory against New Zealand in a row on their home ground is a tremendous achievement and one could hope to see the Cup in Pakistan."

Pakistanis prove the kiwi can't fly

ory over New Zealand at Eden Park today to reach the final of the cricket World Cup for the first time, reports Reuter.

The Pakistanis, thanks to veteran campaigner Javed Miandad's cool head and a thrilling innings by Inzamamul Haq, overhauled New Zealand's impressive total of 262 for seven with one over to spare in a gripping finish.

Miandad scored 57 not out. backed up by a compelling and equally important 60 from Inzamamul, after Pakistan appeared to be bogged down in the middle of the innings.

Opener Rameez Raja and Pakistan captain Imran Khan laid a solid foundation with 44 apiece while their winning runs came from wicketkeeper Moin Khan.

He smashed a six and four in the 49th over, bowled by Chris Harris, to see Pakistan through to the semfinal victory at 264 for six.

New Zealand set what appeared to be a tough target. after winning the toss, captain Martin Crowe scoring an accomplished 91 of their 262 for seven. But Crowe pulled a hamstring while batting and did not field. New Zealand's medium-pace attack, effective against most teams in the World Cup, faltered badly on this occasion. Harris was smashed for 72 runs from his 10 overs and offspinner Dipak Patel, who again opened the bowling, recorded unusually expensive figures of one for 50.

Inzamamul received the man-of-the-match award for his 60, which turned the

The 22-year-old middle order batsman came in when Pakistan were struggling at 140 for four. He reached his half century in just 31 balls and his innings altogether included five fours and one six.

He and Miandad put on 87 vital runs in 64 balls, hauling back a required run-rate of more than eight an over to set up the victory. Pakistan scored 118 runs from the last 15 overs, and never looked desperate in a situation that had the 32,000 crowd in a state of high ten-

Patel made an early breakthrough for New Zealand when he had opener Aamir Sohail caught attempting to sweep with the score on 30.

Man-of-the-match Pakistan's Inzamamul Haq plays and misses during his whirlwind innings of 60 in the World Cup cricket semifinal yesterday against New Zealand in Auckland. -AFP photo.

Imran Khan promoted himself to number three and put together a patient 54-run partnership with Rameez before the latter was caught in the deep by Danny Morrison after scoring 44.

From 84 for two, Imran and Miandad batted slowly but surely, watching the run-rate grow, until Imran was caught by Gavin Larsen off Harris for 44 in the 34th over.

When Salim Malik was caught by substitute Rod Latham six runs after, New Zealand appeared to be cruising, but Inzamamul finally exposed an attack that had helped to achieve seven wins in their eight round-robin

He was run out in the 45th over, having faced just 37 balls for his 60, leaving Pakistan needing 36 from five overs.

Wasim Akram made nine before he was bowled by Willie Watson, but wicketkeeper Moin kept a cool head, scoring

THE FACE OF DEFEAT: Despair writ large on New Zealand wicket-keeper Ian Smith's face as the Pakistanis inch closer to victory. -Star photo from TV 20 not out with Miandad to see meeting England Pakistan home.

A jubilant Imran said Inzamamul's innings was responsible for the Pakistani Calling Inzamamul one of the finest stroke players with one of the coolest temperaments in the game, Imran predicted Pakistan would be Wednesday's final. England play South Africa in the second semifinal in Sydney on Sunday.

"Considering it is the first time we have got into the final and considering we won from a position where New Zealand were dominating, obviously it was a great delight to win."

the 39-year-old Pakistan captain said.

Pakistan lost in the semifinals when they were co-hosts of the previous World Cup in 1987, and Imran said he knew exactly what Crowe was going through.

Imran predicted his team would win the World Cup, and attributed part of it to his Muslim faith.

"My faith is very strong. ! believe we are going to win the World Cup because of that," he added. Crowe, who has led New Zealand from rank outsiders to the semifinal, said after the match his team was heartbro-

Choking back tears, Crowe said he sensed panic setting in among his teammates halfway through Pakistan's innings, as Inzamamul began to punish New Zealand's bowlers.

"We were on a downer and they had climbed a few mountains to come back," Crowe said.

The New Zealand captain, whose innings of 91 had placed his team in a strong dream was shattered when he was forced to leave the field with a hamstring injury.

"My dream was to show New Zealanders we could go all the way and my dream stopped when I was taken out of the match," he said.

There is no doubt the absence of Crowe, whose innovative captaincy has been widely admired, affected New Zealand, especially at the crucial mid-point of the innings when the home team's bowlers needed to keep Inzamamul and Miandad under control.

SCOREBOARD Scoreboard in the World Cup cricket semifinal between New Zealand and Pakistan at Eden Park today: NEW ZEALAND

Greatbatch b Aagib Wright c Rameez B Mushtaq13 Jones Ibw b Mushtag Crowe run out Rutherford c Motn b Akram 50 Harris st Moin b Sikander 13 Smith not out Patel lbw b Akram Larsen not out Extras : (b-4, lbw-7,w-8 nb -423 Total { seven wickets-50 overs) Fall of wickets: 1-35; 2-39; 3-87: 4-194: 5-214: 6-221: 7-244.

Did not bat : D Morrison, W

Watson.
Bowling:	0	M	R	V
Akram	10	0	40	12
Aaqtb	10	2	45
Mushtaq	10	0	40
lmran	10	0	59	119
Sikander	9	0	56	3 3 4
Sohail	1	0	11	29
PAKISTA	N	11.000.000
Water Street			90

Aamir Sohail c Jones b Patel

Rameez Raja c Morrison Imran Khan c Larsen b Harris Javed Miandad not out Salim Malik c sub b Larsen Inzamamul Haq run out Wasim Akram b Watson 20 Moin Khan not out

49 overs) Fall of wickets: 1-30; 2-84; 3-134; 4-140; 5-227; 6-238. Did not bat: Iqbal Sikander, Mushtaq Ahmed, Aaqıb Javed OM Bowling

Extras : (b-4, lb-10 w-1)

Total: (six wickets-

50 Patel 0 55 Morrison 39 10 2 Watson 34 10 Larsen 0 72 Harris Result: Pakistan won by four Inzamamul Haq.

Man-of-the-match:

Gooch glad to play SA

SYDNEY, Mar 21: England cricket captain Graham Gooch is delighted his team will face South Africa in Sunday's second semifinal of the World Cup, reports AP. Gooch never has played an official match against South Africa and missed the firstround match between the teams because of a hamstring

He captained a rebel team to South Africa 10 years ago and also played two Currie Cup seasons for Western Province. "I spent two very enjoyable seasons playing in South Africa, but I never thought I would play against them in an official match", he said. 'It's the sort of game every international cricketer dreams about playing,"

Gooch said England is back on track after losing its last two games in the first round. "We know we've not had a good week but we're ready," he "We are just one match away from the final and we have got to make sure we get it right. England, who are 5-4 favourites to win their maiden title, are wary of their opponents for Sunday's semi-final. "It's a big game but you try to drive emotion out of the window and treat it in a cold, calculating, professional way. England won the firstround match between the teams with two balls to spare.

A similarly close encounter could be decided by the fleid-England's Neil Fairbrother and South African Jonty Rhodes are to of the sharpest fielders in the tournament and their contribution could prove "I'm here as a batsmen," Fairbrother said Saturday. "Fielding is an occupational

"It's a part of the game like anything else but I wouldn't say love it.

Rhodes, in contrast, thrives on being involved while field-

"A lot of people find it a hassle, but I've always enjoyed it," he said. When I first started out I was not much of a batsman and couldn't bowl, so fielding was always very enjoy-

"I can't keep still, so fielding is one way of releasing my

The winner of Sunday's match will face Pakistan in the World Cup final in Melbourne next Wednesday.

WORLD CUP NOTEBOOK

SYDNEY, Mar 21: The daily notebook on the World Cup

AUCKLAND: An American airline is trying to profit from the departure of the Australians from the World Cup by appealing to the instincts of Kiwis, reports AFP.

A full page Continental Airlines advertisement lists some of the lower scores of Australian batsmen - headed by Allan Border 12, and followed by Geoff Marsh 8, David Boon 5, Dean Jones 6, Tom Moody 4, Steve Waugh 2, and lan Healy and Criag McDermott both 0.

Adds the airline: Few things are consistently as low as Continental's fares to (Australia).

EDEN PARK JINX CONTINUES Eden Park's infamous jinx continued Saturday.

For a couple of overs, its troublesome electronic scoreboard, which failed during a number of games, gave faulty information.

But potentially the greatest problem for the management was the failure of the lifts to the corporate boxes. Like everybody else, the rich and want-to-be famous had to walk up the steps.

RIDICULOUS RULES

The injustice of the rain rules in the World Cup were graphically illustrated Saturday in the Pakistan-New Zealand semi-final

New Zealand scored 262 -- for seven. If the promised rain had arrived and Pakistan had been limited to 25 overs they would have required 216 runs to win - an extraordinary runrate of 8.6 runs an over.

In the event after 25 overs Pakistan were 97 for two.

TRADITION TAKES BACK SEAT

Political tradition in New Zealand demands that MPs spend the weekends in their electorates.

But for Prime Minister Jim Bolger, from the remote King Country seat, and Sports Minister John Banks from provincial Whangarei, passion for cricket has overridden

And for the last three weekends, they've arranged affairs to be in the same town - indeed the same ground - for World Cup cricket.

advises the young Inzamam-ul Haq .

Pakistan's star batsman Javed Miandad (R) who played a salutary role in yesterday's win,

For Imran and his men, it's a crusade

AUCKLAND, Mar 21: A crusade to build Pakistan's first cancer hospital is Imran Khan's secret weapon in leading his country to the World Cup cricket final, reports Reuter.

The dashing bachelor, entering the final stages of a phenomenally successful sporting career, has raised about three million dollars in two years for a non-profit hospital in memory of his mother, who succumbed to the

The hospital will both contribute to and benefit from a Pakistani victory, captain lmran said. "Because of my hospital we have to win," he told a news conference after the New Zealand match. "My faith is very strong and I believe we are going to win the World Cup because of that."

"To collect money from Pakistan I needed this win today and I hope for a win in the final," he added. The hospital he plans to build in Lahore will be Pakistan's only specialised cancer unit.

Martin Crowe acknowledged Imran's cancer crusade has instilled the team with a desperation that will probably take them to victory.

Even New Zealand captain

"I'm pleased for him because I know he has a deepseated dream to go on and win

-Star photo from TV by Taneem Khan

out a wicket and included the World Cup... because he's got a dream to build a cancer three wides. In the end Pakistan beat New Zealand by hospital which is a wonderful four wickets thanks to a fine thing and that's what's driving him to drive his team." Crowe 60 from young gun Inzamamul runs slowed the team's mo-

Ironically, Imran almost killed that dream in the semifinal - his effort in scoring 44 mentum. The 10 overs he bowled yielded 59 runs with-

Imran invites Sharif to final

ISLAMABAD, Mar 21 Pakistan Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif Saturday congratulated his country's cricket team on their "superb and splendid" game in Auekland where they beat New Zealand by four wickets to reach the World Cup final, local television reported, reports AFP. Sharif phoned and congratulated the Pakistani skipper Imran Khan and team manager Intikhab Alam saying the "Victory of our team has sent a wave of joy among the people of Pakistan who feel rightly proud of them," it said.

39-year-old Imran exudes the charisma that would make for a fine political career once his cricket days end. But while

With his fine facial features, rugged mane and olive skin,

He particularly appreciated Imran for his "quality of leadership," it said. Imran has invited Sharif, who also plays cricket at the club level, to visit Australia to witness the final of the World Cup on Wednesday, the official Associated Press of Pakistan reported. Pakistani team, which reached the World Cup final for the first time, will take on the winners of the second semifinal to be played between South Africa and England in Sydney Sunday.

New Zealand captain Martin Crowe made a magnificent 91 from only 83 balls in his side"s total yesterady.

women may fall at his feet, he is no mere playboy.

As an ambassador for UNICEF, he has criticised Pakistani governments for allowing his country's rich historical heritage and unique wildlife to vanish. Pakistan's delicate infrastructure cannot cope with the population explosion, and its medical and educational institutions are bursting at the seams, he says.

way its media portray the Islamic culture and religion, draws the most vitriol from Imran. Whenever any news of Islam is shown there are these pictures of veiled women, he said in a recent newspaper interview. "Islam gets the worst publicity." In fact, Islam is one of the more liberated religions. "It's he said. Cute handball not something to be scared of,

However, the West, and the

Sports Reporter

The remaining matches of the Cute First Division handball league under the aegis of the Bangladesh Handball Federation will be held from tomorrow at the Outer Stadium handball court, says a press release. Bangladesh Rifles will play Bangladesh Police in the only encounter scheduled for three in the afternoon.

THE JINX REMAINS

by Chandra Shekhar

wickets.

a highly commendable victory against co-hosts New Zealand yesterday at the Eden Park, Auckland. With Australia, the 'major' host taking a surprising and unceremonious leave in the round robin phase, Pakistan's victory effectively blew out New Zealand's resolve to break the

Pakistan, one of the pre-tourna-ment favourites of the Benson and Hedges 1992 World Cup.

underwent a Kafkaesque met-amorphosis to arrive at the threshold of the championship with tory of the championship. Judged from the viewpoint of sheer natural talent Pakistan have often been labelled as the most likely bidders for the championship, along with the West Indies. Somehow or the other, they failed to win a place in the finals of any of the previous tournaments. They began their present campaign with a humiliating drubbing at the hands of two-time champions West Indies. Then they made most of the weather intervention by getting away with a point even after being skittled out for a paltry 74 against England. The successive defeats to India and South Africa did nothing but raise their spirits and since then their performance has been most dramatic. They won three consecutive matches in sudden-death conditions, situations where a defeat could have meant the evaporation of jinx of host country not winning the Cup in the 17-year his-their Cup dreams. While top favourites Australia, the West Indies and 1983 champions India withered, Pakistan went from strength to strength beating Australia, Shri Lanka and New Zealand on their way to the semifinals and then, of course, capping it with a virtuoso performance against the Kiwis in the first semifinal yesterday. They will play the winners of the other semifinal between South Africa and England to be played today. For South Africa it's been a magnificent return to the world of sound and fury after twenty odd years in isolation because of the apartheid policy. If they can knock out the 1987 runners-up and two-time finalists England and then the Pakistanis, who will be as nervous as them in the final, then glorious, unpredictable cricket will add another feather to its

Talking about the kaleidoscopic nature of the tournament, this World Cup has been an unending source of colour and innovation to be etched in the memory for a long time.

reen following the dismissal of One of the imaginative cartoons that flashed on the -Star photo from TV by Taneem Khan Pakistan skipper Imran Khan yesterday.