State Minister for Youth and Sports Sadek Hossain underscored the need for training up the youths in such way that they could create employment by themselves, reports BSS.

He said self-employment was imperative to solve the great unemployment problem which could not be removed only by providing regular jobs.

The State Minister was speaking at a press conference here yesterday after his return from the Commonwealth Youth Ministers' conference held in Male from May 10 to 12.

Hossain led the two-member Bangladesh delegation in the conference which adopted resolutions to integrate the youth-folk in various socio-economic development programmes including the removal of illiteracy and unemployment in the member countries of the Commonwealth family.

Delegates from 39 countries including 29 Youth Ministers attended the three-day conference.

Teachers and students of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology brought out a mourning procession Sunday.
