DU VC denies report

The Vice-chancellor of Dhaka University, Professor Mantruzzaman Miah, yesterday issued a rejoinder to a report headlined 'Expulsion issue: DU VC to talk to teachers, students' which appeared on the July 4 issue of The Daily Star.

In the rejoinder the VC denied having said that 'The allegations against DU teachers were not absolutely baseless' and that 'It is true only about a few of the teachers.'

The VC added 'the question of my telling such thing does not arise' as no student either individually or in a group has brought any specific allegations against any teacher.

'What I said was that what happened on June 27 last and subsequently indicates that there is a gap between the teachers and the students,' he said in the rejoinder, adding 'And we should all try to bridge this gap rather than doing anything to widen it further.'
