

Vested quarters conspiring to tarnish image of govt'

State Minister for Establishment Md Nurul Huda has called upon the students to develop their talents in order to attain the cherished goal of the nation to build an educated, united and production-oriented country, reports BSS.

In different educational institutions including Dhaka University, the State Minister said: The vested quarters were hatching conspiracies through their student fronts to tarnish the democratic government's image. He said they were creating issues one after another. But they did not get the support of the people in any one of the issues, he added.

He advised the JCD workers to work for the students and creating proper educational environment by removing all obstacles.

Presided over by the local student leader R S Washim, the function was addressed by Md Alam Khan MP, Md Mujibar Rahman, student's affairs secretary of BNP Central Committee, Mollah Siddiqur Rahman, Convenor of Chandpur Zila BNP, Abdul Malek, Organizing Secretary of JCD central committee and other student leaders.

Population Day observed

KHULNA, July 11: The World Population Day was observed here today through holding various programmes including rally, procession, discussion, seminar and film show, reports BSS.

A colourful procession with banners, lanterns and placards was brought out from K D A Avenue which went round the main thoroughfares of the metropolitan city chanting different slogans in favour of family planning and ecological balance.

A seminar on 'Ecologically balanced world is sought for future generation' was held at Khulna FWTI auditorium in this connection.

Speakers at the seminar called for strengthening the family planning activities and taking it as a social movement. Highlighting the significance of the day they called upon the people to take a vow for ensuring small family and keeping ecological balance.

Rajshahi

World Population Day was observed here today as elsewhere in the country with a call for curbing the present growth rate of population through creating social awareness is against population explosion.

A procession led by the city Mayor Mizanur Rahman Minu paraded the mainstreets carrying colourful banners, placards and lanterns and chanting slogans against population explosion.

Officials and employees of the family planning department, Non-Government Organisations and common people took part in the procession which was brought out from Monibazar.

Later, speakers at a seminar on 'The earth in balance' held at the Zila parishad auditorium stressed the need for checking population boom and called upon all to adopt family planning for overall development of the country.

They also called upon people of all strata to come forward in making the government's tree plantation programme a success with a view to resisting environmental pollution.

With Deputy Director of Family Planning Department Abdul Baki in the chair, the seminar was addressed by di-
