Cancer control plan submitted

An integrated plan and programme for cancer control in Bangladesh, prepared by the Bangladesh Cancer Society has been submitted to President Abdur Rahman Biswas at Bangabhaban here yesterday, reports BSS.

The plan was handed over by the president of the Society, Professor Syed Fazlul Haq, while a 10-member delegation called on the President last morning.

Talking to them, President Biswas stressed the need for combating cancer through the concerted efforts of all.

He appreciated the efforts of the Bangladesh Cancer Society in bringing a change in the outlook of containing the deadly disease.

He also underscored the need for personal patronisation in this regard and urged all to render their best services in fighting this disease.

The President also stressed the need for initiating massive campaign against smoking and use of tobacco through the media to check this deadly disease.

He assured them of his all-out cooperation to the Society so that they could serve the cancer patients through institutional means.

Among others, Mahbubuzaman, Professor M M Islam, Dr A M M Khan, Dr Shamir Kumar Sharma, Professor Habibuzaman, Professor M A Hai and Dr M A Majid of the Society, were present.

Building up of youths through technical education underscored

President Abdur Rahman Biswas underscored the need for building up the youth force through imparting technical education and ensuring their participation in the nation building activities, reports BSS.

He said the nation had no time to waste and the youth should be involved in the country's economic activities.

Addressing a gathering of the members of the Bangladesh Jatiyatabadi Jubo Samabaya Samity at Bangabhaban yesterday the President said that the cooperative movement should be geared up to achieve self-reliance.

Referring to the unemployment problem, he said that capital formation and co-operative marketing could help yield positive result in solving this problem.

President Biswas said the country is lagging behind in many aspects and it is imperative to tap natural resources to utilize them for country's development.

He said that Shaheed President Ziaur Rahman had given a new dimension in country's development by ensuring peace and order in society.

He said all should come forward to curb terrorism to ensure peace in society for national development.

He urged the youth community to equip themselves with knowledge and skill to shoulder future responsibility.
