UN N-experts visit undisclosed site

BAGHDAD, Sept 6: A UN nuclear weapons team made its final inspection on Sunday at an undisclosed site, a day before its scheduled departure, reports AP.

Team leader Maurizio Zifferero, an Italian who works with the International Atomic Energy Agency, stayed behind at a Baghdad hotel to work on his final report, UN officials said. He was not immediately available for comment.

Earlier, Zifferero described the work as "routine" and a follow-up to earlier visits. Iraq has been cooperative, he has

In papers filed in Los Angeles County Superior Court, Mrs Landon alleged that Ms Hanna sent threatening messages and demanded money from the Landon family for three years.

The former nanny also threatened Jennifer, saying she was possessed by the devil," Mrs Landon alleges.

Winnie's love letter

JOHANNESBURG: Newspapers Sunday published a letter allegedly written by Winnie Mandela to a former lover and incriminating them in the misuse of African National Congress funds, reports AP.

The Sunday Times and Sunday Star of Johannesbury each said a copy of the lengthy, bitter letter was delivered anonymously to their offices. It was not signed by Mrs Mandela, but both papers said investigations proved the handwriting was that of Mrs Mandela, wife of ANC President Nelson Mandela.

Local media have long linked Mrs Mandela, 58, romantically to lawyer Dali Mpofu, 30, to whom the letter was written. She and Mpofu have denied having an affair.

The newspapers said both people declined opportunities to comment on the letter, which was written in March. Telephone calls to Mrs Mandela's SowMO 19. W Mpofu's home number is unlisted.
