

Biswas opens BM College centenary celebration 'Govt firm to ensure bare necessities of commonman'

President Abdur Rahman Biswas yesterday called for united efforts of teachers, students and guardians to help remove the darkness of illiteracy through expanding education...

With this end in view, he said the present democratic government had initiated some revolutionary steps including the mass literacy programme of Shaheed President Ziaur...

Rahman and sought cooperation of all in this regard.

The President was inaugurating a three-day centenary celebration of Brojomohan University College in Barisal with a large number of old and new students, local elites, political leaders and members of parliament attending the function.

With Principal of the college Mohammad Hanif in the chair, the inaugural function was also addressed, among others, by State Minister for Education Principal Eunus Khan, State Minister for Irrigation and Water Resources Mosharraf Hossain Shahjahan, Bangladesh Red Crescent Society Chairman Shahidul Huq Jamal MP, Mujibur Rahman Sarwar MP, Selima Rahman MP, Rawshan Ara Hena MP and VP of the college students union Imam Jahan Sikder.

The President said democracy and independence are the first and foremost prerogatives to development and added, "We should now change our outlook to establish the society on a balanced system on the basis of science and technology."

The President said the present government was pledge-bound to ensure bare necessities of the commonman through proper utilisation of resources and reducing the level of unemployment.

President Biswas said the Barisal Divisional Headquarters was now being set up and a full-fledged university will be established in future.

President Biswas recalled with gratitude the memory of the founder of the college late Babu Ashwini Kumar Dutta and said he had established the college during the British rule when the whole society was immersed into illiteracy and prejudices.

"A great social worker Babu Ashwini Kumar Dutta established the college after his father's name Babu Brojomohan Dutta in 1889 which was later termed as Oxford of Bengal for its standard of education," he said.

A procession of youths on the eve of Youth Day paraded the city thoroughfares yesterday. — Star photo

Jubo Dal procession tomorrow

Bangladesh Jatiyatadabi Jubo Dal, youth front of the ruling BNP, will bring out a colourful procession in the capital tomorrow (Tuesday) on the occasion of its founding anniversary, reports BSS.

The procession will start at 9 am from the mazar premises of shaheed President Ziaur Rahman and parade different city streets.

Jatiyatadabi Jubo Dal Dhaka City unit held a discussion meeting yesterday at its Naya Paltan office to discuss the preparations for the observance of the day.

With the Dhaka City Jubo Dal President Abu Sayed Khan Khokan in the chair, the meeting urged the leaders and workers of thana and ward committees to assemble by 8 am at the mazar premises for ziarat before the procession starts.

'Ideals of Maulana Islamabadi will continue to inspire us'

CHITTAGONG, Oct 25: Forest, Fisheries and Environment Minister Abdullah Al-Noman said here yesterday that the ideals of Maulana Moniruzzaman Islamabadi would continue to inspire the people to uphold national freedom and dedicate themselves to social services, reports BSS.

He said, a front-rank freedom fighter of British period, Maulana Islamabadi devoted his life to social services and reforms with the prime objective of ensuring welfare of the people. A journalist, writer and freedom fighter, Maulana Islamabadi would be remembered by us for ever, he added.

Speaking as the chief guest at a discussion held on the occasion of the 42nd death anniversary of Maulana Moniruzzaman Islamabadi at Kadam Mubarak Orphanage premises here, the minister said, Maulana Islamabadi was not only a political leader but he was a journalist, reformer, freedom fighter and an ideal social worker. Maulana Islamabadi founded Kadam Mubarak Orphanage in Chittagong city with a missionary zeal to help build up and rehabilitate orphans.

The discussion, presided over by the Deputy Commissioner AHM Abul Kashem, was also addressed by City Mayor Mir Muhammad Nasiruddin, Dainik Azadi Editor Prof Mohammad Khaled, BNP leader Advocate Badrul Anwar and orphanage secretary Shahabuddin.
