Rise above self-interest, Noor Uddin tells army

A ceremonial parade marking the presentation of regimental colour to the invincible seventeen, a battalion of the East Bengal Regiment (EBR) was held at the Bogra Cantonment yesterday, reports BSS.

Chief of army staff Lt General Muhammad Noor Uddin Khan who is also the Colonel of the East Bengal Regiment was present as chief guest on the occasion and handed over the regimental colour to the invincible seventeen. He also reviewed the smartly turned-out parade and took salute at the impressive march past.

Speaking on the occasion the Chief of Army Staff called upon the members of the army to rise above self-interest so that they could achieve professional efficiency. A high standard of moral values, loyalty, discipline and continuous training are the guiding principles in the life of a soldier, he added.

General Noor Uddin observed that the invincible seventeen had received the regimental colour in recognition of its high standard of training, discipline and dutifulness. The regimental colour is a token of firm confidence and trust of the army. All officers and troops of the battalion should keep it ever high at any cost, he said.

The chief of army staff further said that the army personnel earned appreciation of all for their humanitarian services at the time of natural calamities as well as in maintenance of peace at the Chittagong Hill Tracts. Their performance as members of the UN peace keeping forces and military observers at various countries as well as in the reconstruction of Kuwait stood them in high esteem abroad, he observed.

He referred with high esteem the contributions of the late Major MA Ghani, the late general MA Osman and the late Lt General Khawaja Washuuddin and asked all members of the tigers' family especially the new comers, to follow their predecessors' path and uphold the glorious history and tradition of the regiment.
