Kulaura thana BNP president Abdur Rahim, the meeting was addressed by a number of BNP leatters and leaders of its front organisations.

Saifur Rahman said the people of the country were hopeful of a bright future when BNP came to power. He said, this year the country had bumper Aman crop and people started to feel that voting for paddy sheaves will usher in days of happiness.

The Finance Minister said the leaders and workers of BNP and its front organisations will have to work with utmost sincerity for carrying the mantle of the ideology and policies and programmes of the party to the doorsteps of the people, motivate them to follow those and involve them in all develpresent government has taken up pragmatic development programmes to bring desired changes in all parts of the country. The greater Sylhet alone has a lot of programmes to improve roads, culverts, and bridges, railway stations, schools and colleges and so on and so forth.

He called upon the people to respond to the political calls of different parties as per their rational judgement. The peopie of the country never failed to give their correct verdict in the past, he pointed out.

Sunday evening, the Finance Minister had a meeting with the leaders and workers of BNP and its front organisations at the Moulvibazar circuft house.
