TOKYO: Japanese Crown Prince Naruhito (L) and his fiancee Masako Owada walk together at the Togu Palace after their joint press conference. The couple were

Off the Record

German men worried about ability to make love about their ability to make love, according to a survey published Tuesday by the women's magazine Freundin, reports

BONN: German men are becoming increasingly worried

Only 48 per cent considered themselves to be "good

A total of 58 per cent admitted to having fears of being un-

Despite the change in confidence, most men's fantasy

The survey also showed that German homosexuals were lovers" compared with 53 per cent in 1987 and 66 per cent able to satisfy a woman, and a third of men aged 18 to 29 woman remained unchanged, long-legged, with a sensual mouth, long blonde hair and a generous chest, and dressed more confident about disclosing their sexual preferences: 62

Orphaned tiger cubs arrive at a new home phaned in the wilds of eastern Russia have arrived at a new home, the Henry Doorly Zoo, with their claws out and growls

Lena, a tiger studied in a US Russian project at the Sikohote-OMAIIA, Neb: Two endangered Siberian tiger cubs or-

The cubs were born in late August or early September to Lena died, apparently killed by poachers, and the cubs

After a 36-hour trip from the reserve, the cubs were

The pair, a male and a female weighing about 50 pounds

"They really look good. They're quite active," said zoo di-Once out of their cages, they split up and explored the perimeter of the enclosure, bumping into the surrounding Chelsea wants to get rid of press coverage when it comes to dealing with the press: Leave your parents home and you'll have a chance at some privacy, reports AP.

WASHINGTON: Chelsea Clinton seems to be a quick study

Her father, the new president, shares an example in a

"Her school at home had an assembly on the last day for her - a little good bye assembly - and she told us to stay home," Bill Clinton said in the interview. "She didn't want any press coverage for it. She just wanted it to be between her were rescued November 21 about 400 miles (640 kilometers) placed in a snow-covered, open area Monday at the centre of (22.5 kilograms) each, clawed at their cages and growled while zoo employees worked to release them from their per cent today, against only 55 per cent in 1982.

- AFP/ UNB photo

"officially" engaged Tuesday confessed they had erection problems.

in 1980, it said.

in silk underwear.

in their throats, reports AP.

north of Vladivostok.

the zoo's Cat Complex.

rector Lee Simmons.

glass walls.

Alin Biosphere Reserve in Russia.

Space shuttle Endeavour lands: The space shuttle Endeavour landed on Tuesday, ending a six day mission in which astronauts deployed a satellite, walked in space and taught school children science lessons. reports Reuter from Cape Canaveral.

The shuttle, briefly delayed by XOG, touched down at 8:38 am (1338 GMT) at the Kennedy space centre on its 96th orbit with Air Force Colonel John Casper at the controls.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said the 2 billion dollars shuttle and its crew of five were in good shape after Endeavour's third space flight, the 53rd of the US shuttle programme.

The astronauts 'were all excited about the success of the mission, and I am, too," said Jeremiah Pearson, NASA chief of space flight.

Japan's Prince postpones ME trip: Japan's Crown Prince Naruhito has postponed a trip to the Middle East scheduled to start Friday, the government said vesterday, reports AFP from Tokyo.

The Crown Prince was to visit Oman, Qatar, Bahrain, the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia and Kuwait during a twoweek trip.

Chief Cabinet Secretary and top government spokesman Yohei Kono said that due to tension in the Gulf, the situation was "not suitable" for the goodwill visit.

The decision was approved at a cabinet meeting yesterday, Kono said.

Tremor hits Japan: A powerful carthquake far beneath the Sea of Japan shook wide areas of Japan late on Tuesday, but there were no reports of injuries or scrious damage, the meteorolosgical agency said on Wednesday, Reuter reports' from Tokyo.

The tremor, which registered 6.8 on the Richter scale, occurred at about 11.40 pm (1440 GMT), the agency said. Its focal point was 500 KM (310 miles) underground, and much of the shock was harmlessly dissipated.

The inhabited area most affected was Onahama, about 120 KM (75 miles) north of the Tokyo on the Pacific coast, where the tremor registered three on the Japanese scale of seven. It rated just one on the Japanese scale in Tokyo.

Ogata, Alagabid talk Bosnia issue: United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNITCR) Sadako Ogata held talks in Jeddah Tucsday with Secretary General of the Organisation of the Islamic Conference (OIC) Hamid Algabid on the conflict in Bosnia- Herzegovina, says AFP from Jeddah.

According to a statement released at the OIC in Jeddah, "the two parties examined ways of strengthening co-operation between their respective organisations to provide aid to victims of the conflict in Bosnia.

Algabid and Ogata also reviewed efforts by the OIC "to bring end to Serbian aggression against Bosnia," the statement said. Ogata, who has been in Saudi Arabia since Friday or Saturday visited the Rasha desert camp, which is providing shelter for nearly 30,000 Iraqis who fled Iraq after the Gulf Russian General arrested: A Russian Air Force General has been arrested for running a multi-million rouble business from his far-east airbase, flying businessmen and cargos to and from China in military aircraft, Izvestia newspaper said on Tuesday, reports Reuter from Moscow.

It quoted Major General Vladimir Rodionov, arrested by military counter- intelligence, as saying he was only "restoring justice" by taking a cut from fortunes accumulated by Izvestia said former flying ace Rodionov charged roubles and dollars to fly groups from dozens of Russian cities. Crews took a half of the profits and servicemen were used as a sales force to hawk Chinese goods supplied as additional bribes, it

Armenian troops down

3 Azeri warplanes

MOSCOW, Jan 20: Armenian forces in the disputed enclave of Nagorno-Karabakh said they had shot down three Azeri warplanes on Tuesday, accord-ports Reuter.

ing to an Armenian agency, re-

But the Azerbaijani Defence

Ministry, which acknowledged the loss of two warplanes at the weekend, said it was not aware of any further aircraft agency, quoting the defence staff in the Karabakh capital of Stepanakett, said the Azerbaijani air force had lost a total of seven warplanes, SU-25s and Mig-21s, over est military strikes against Iraq to partition the country, rea double standard in its desire to bring Arabs to the negotiating table with Israel on the one hand and its aggression towards the Arabs of Iraq on the to divide up lragi territory," the Palestine Liberation

Organisation leader told

Free French

leader Rene

This is in fact an attempt

He also accused the West of ports Reuter.

other.

Karabakh this year.

The Armenian Snark News being shot down on Tuesday.

of claims and counter-claims over casualties and material losses are difficult to obtain in this Transcausasian crupted in 1988 when Soviet leader Glasnost allowed expression of ethnic resentments that had simmered in decades of harsh Communist rule. But Gorbachev proved unable to tackle the problems at the root of the Soviet Union's most Karabakh, a largely-

Armenian-populated territory inside Azerbaijan, is fighting for independence of Baku.

some activists want a formally-recognised independent republic while others insist on try under embargo for two

The air strikes, led by the United States with British and French support, have concentrated mostly on two air exclusion zones in the north and broadcast as several countries, notably Italy and Russia, voiced concern that the resumption of military action against Iraq

Arafats interview was years," he added.

south of Iraq.

union with Armenia.

costly conflict.

Mikhail Gorbachev's policy of Clinton pledges to inject

WASHINGTON, Jan 20: On the brink of his presidency, Bill Clinton pledged to inject a spirit of innovation in government and said, "I desperately want to make a difference," reports AP. Nearly half his Cabinet received preliminary approval, and Clinton on Tuesday filled out his State Department team to confront a rash of global Asking the prayers and support of friends and foes alike, Clinton said, "I face daunting challenges too great for any person's mind to comprehend or wisdom to judge or strength to meet alone."

At noon Wednesday, Clinton is to recite the historic 35word oath and become America's 42nd President. Fifteen minutes earlier. Vice President- elect Al Gore is to 9 states to send troops to

Mozambique

Nine countries have so far agreed to provide troops for a major UN peace-keeping operation to monitor a cease-fire and elections in civil war-torn

Mozambique, Secretary General Boutros Boutros-Ghali said

Council, he named the potential troop donors as Argentina,

Bangladesh, Brazil, Cape Verde, Egypt, Italy, Malaysia, mously on December 16 to establish the UN operation in Mozambique (Onumoz), comprising about 7,500 troops,

The hard-pressed United Nations already has more than 50,000 troops and other personnel serving in peace-keeping operations as far afield as Yugoslavia, Cambodia, El self-sufficient infantry battalions of 850 men each as well as an engineer battalion, three logistics companies, a headquarters company, and IR, communications, medical and movement control units, plus

"Iran continues to be a major abuser of human rights, and there was no evidence of significant improvement in 1992," the US State Department annual human rights report concluded Tucsday, cluded summary executions; widespread torture; repression of the freedoms of speech, press, and association; arbitrary detentions; lack of fair trials, repression of the Baha'i religious community, and se-

"The Government, domi

vere restrictions on women.

The report said abuses in-reports AP.

354 military observers.

Onumoz is to include five Salvador and South Lebanon.

The council voted unani-

Sweden and Uruguay.

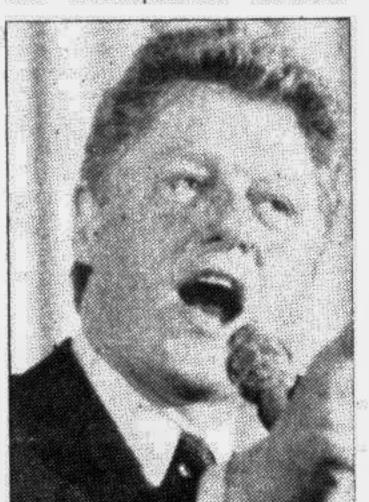

police and civilians.

In a letter to the Security on Tuesday, reports Reuter.

UNITED NATIONS, Jan 20:

be sworn in. Both men plan to begin the day worshipping at the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal Church, a prominent black church. Clinton's last day as a pri-

Thousands of people paid

Clinton began his day tribute at the graves of the two slain Kennedys, John and Robert, his political heroes. He placed a white rose at each burial site and bowed his head in prayer. About 20 members

President Bush held a

At the Capitol, stand-ins for Clinton and Vice Presidentelect Al Gore, with white name tags draped from their necks, went through the motions of Wednesday's ceremony at the west front of the Capitol as photographers and broadcasters checked camera angles. Chief Justice William Rehnquist inspected the stand where he'll swear in Chiton at the stroke of noon.

Afghan radicals rocket Kabul: 3 killed

KABUL, Jan 20: At least three people were killed and more than 80 injured when radical opponents of the Afghan government launched rocket attacks on the capital Kabul on Tuesday, officials said, reports Reuter.

Hezb-I-Islami party of hardline Mujahideen leader Gulbuddin lickmatyar for the third successive day of rocket attacks.

The government and Hezb both claimed victories in the fighting. The Defence Ministry said government troops had captured important Hezb bases and weapons east of Kabul in a sweep to flush out the party's fighters.

being carried out because of continued shelling over the past few weeks and the threat to Kabul airport," a Ministry spokesman said.

agency in neighbouring Pakistan said the party's fighters had killed many government troops and captured 100.

parties oppose federal system

Spokesman Mumtaz Bhutto said the Sindi nationalist party's, who formed the United National Alliance on Tuesday, wanted a looser, more decentralised system wherein the nationalists will be the masters of their own former Prime Minister Zulftkar Ali Bhutto, said: "Pakistan is a country of many nationalities

United Nations Tuesday by voice vote at the General created after the peaceful division of Czechoslovakia into two states, the Czech and Slovak duced by Bulgarian Ambassador Stoyan Ganey, who called the Czech and Slovak representatives took their seats in the assembly to the applause of dele-

Secretary General Boutros

Boutros-Ghali, who last week recommended acceptance of occasion a historic event.

The resolution was intro-

After the approval, the Present at the vote was

The two countries were Assembly, reporters AFP.

republic.

Bhutto, a cousin of executed

Czech, Slovak Manila looks to Clinton admitted to UN UNITED NATIONS, Jan 20: to patch up strains The Czech and Slovak republics were admitted to the television interview being broadcast tonight.

MANILA, Jan 20: The Mantla government is looking to President Clinton to patch up strains that the Philippines itself helped to create, reports and her friends. So we did."

"We share with you America's wish for a stronger nation and the hope for equitable and sustained economic progress, not just for our respective peoples but for all nations," President Fidel Ramos said in a message to Clinton on the day of his inauguration

Major Manila newspapers also wished Clinton success in restoring economic vitality in a country that is the Philippines major trading partner.

Wednesday.

prayers for President Clinton's success and look forward to a more fruitful partnership with the American people under his administration," wrote The Manila Bulletin.

"Filipinos offer their ardent

The tone of the comments is in sharp contrast to the acrimony that often surfaced during the administration of former President Corazon Aguino.

Despite US support for her administration, Mrs Aquino's followers never forgave President Bush for remarks he promote peace in South Africa

WASHINGTON, Jan 20: African National Congress spirit of innovation in govt vate citizen was filled with celchration and reflection, lastminute preparations and final rehearsals.

between dlrs 100 and dlrs 1,000 for tickets to "a presidential gala" of entertainment featuring Elton John, Barbara Streisand, Aretha Franklin, Chuck Berry, Judy Collins and the Alvin Ailey Dance Troupe. The rock group Fleetwood Mac reunited for the performance.

Tuesday by paying solemn of the Kennedy clan joined farewell lunch with Vice President Dan Quayle and said goodbyes to his aides.

White House walls once filled with a pictures of Bush stood bare, spruced up with a fresh coat of paint. Workmen toiled outside to touch up the inaugural parade stand.

Australia urges Khmer Rouge to join peace process

BANGKOK, Jan 20: Australian Foreign Minister Gareth Evans urged the radical Khmer Rouge faction Wednesday to join the UN peace process in Cambodia before this month's deadline for participating in elections, reports AP. On Friday, he is to fly to Phnom Penh' to meet UN and Cambodian officials and discuss the problems of the peace process. Indonesian Foreign Minister Ali Alatas, another major mediator, was to arrive in Bangkok Wednesday for Cambodia diplomacy.

Evans, speaking at a luncheon meeting of Australian businessmen, said Cambodia's long-term interests are best met by proceeding with a general election scheduled for May. He said it is in the best interests of all parties, including the Khmer Rouge guerillas to participate.

The Khmer Rouge, which killed hundreds of thousands of Cambodians during its rule in the 1970s, has violated the

US State Department report

Iran continues to be major abuser of human rights posed of Shi'a Muslim cleries and of laymen allied with these clerics, attempts to impose its views of political and socio-religious orthodoxy," the report said, giving citizens little control over their political rights.

power continues to be reinforced through arrests, summary trials and executions, and other forms of intimidation implemented by an extensive internal security system," it goes to great lengths to conceal its human rights abuses,

The Iranian government

The Government's hold on

WASHINGTON, Jan 19: nate by a political elite com-1991 Cambodian peace accord that Evans helped draft and defied the 20,000-member UN mission trying to guide the country toward free and fair elections.

The Khmer Rouge has said it will not participate in the polls under current conditions. Jan 27 is the last day for parties to register for the election, and Phnom Penh government premier Hun Sen has called for the Khmer Rouge to be outlawed if it fails to join in the peace process by

The United Nations has imposed a ban on sales of petroleum to the group.

Evans said it was debatable whether further sanctions against the Khmer Rouge would be productive.

"What's crucial is to get the elections held, to get some democratic legitimacy for a Cambodian government and an effective transition to real authority being vested in that government." he said.

the report said. "Domestic elements that might monitor and report on the Government's practices are

"The Government has repeatedly indicated in public statements that it equates active political opposition to Iran's Islami revolution with terrorism." "In addition, the government continues to carry out political assassinations of its opponents residing abroad.

also investigation the killings in September 1992 of four Iranian Kurdish dissidents,

German authorities were the report said.

ruthlessly suppressed."

The officials blamed the

"The clean-up operation is

He said government forces had entered the outril area east of Kabul, capturing 15 tanks and some artillery pieces.

The Hezb-run Afghan news

5 Sind political

KARACHI, Jan 20: Five small political parties in Pakistan's southern province of Sind have banded together to oppose what they call the country's oppressive federal system, a spokesman for the new group said today, reports Reuter.

destinies."

to its federating units."

Independent confirmation West trying to divide Iraq, says Arafat French television in an inter-PARIS, Jan 20: PLO leader Yasser Arafat, an ally of Iraqi "You can't ask to make President Saddam Hussein peace with Israel and at the during the Gulf War, accused same time continue with agthe western alliance on Tuesday of trying to use its latgression against an Arab coun-

BAGHDAD: Iraqis look at the ruins of a civilian building Tuesday, wrecked by an allied - AFP/ UNB photo

the two new states. might be disproportionate. Wartburg Castle threatened by booming tourism

Pleven dead THE WARTBURG, Jan 20: If the walls of this 900-year-old PARIS, Jan' 20: Rene Pleven, a leader of the Free French in World War II and twice prime minister in the 1950s, has died at the age of 91 of an undisclosed illness. He was buried Monday in his native Britanny, the rugged peninsula of western France, reports AP.

Trained as a lawyer, Pleven joined the Free French after the fall of France in 1940 and was named minister of colonies.

castle could speak, they might say, 'shut the doorst," reports

The Wartburg, which gave refuge to Martin Luther and Goethe, is feeling the full brunt of tourism now that it is no longer secluded within communist East Germany. In the past two years, more than 2 million people have tramped over the drawbridge high above the Thuringia forests to one of the oldest, best-preserved shrines to German history and culture. Hundreds more fly low to get a view from overhead. Although the castle's caretakers relish the attention and revenue, the human traffic causes problems. Frescoes are being shaken off the walls and the breath of tourists injects too much humidity into the

There is even talk of restricting access.

"We would rather have a few less visitors," acknowledged mayor Peter Brodhun of Eisenach, the town at the base of the Wartburg, Brodhun also is a member of the foundation that manages the castle.

The Wartburg has been a cultural and political mecca since the first parts of it were built in 1067.

During the reformation, Luther hid in the castle and finished translating the Bible in to German, creating the written standard for the mod-by 17th-century pilgrims who came to touch the spot where ern language. On the walls of his small workroom are graffiti carved Luther's ink well was said to have hit the wall when he threw it at the devil. Goethe, one of Germany's greatest writers, described the Wartburg as "lofty magniftcence" and began the process of turning it into a museum. St. Elizabeth spent most of her life in the castle. Franz Liszt and Richard Wanger wrote music to honour it. in 1817, hundreds of students rallied at the Wartburg for a free, united Germany.

The Nazis briefly erected their swastika in place of the castle's served the castle as a nationalists symbol. During the lengthening cross. The Communists con-peak tourist season at the Wartburg, people wait in line for hours just to get through the arched a stone entrance. Cars and tour buses pack the three parking lots while others snake along to Eisenach below. About 400,000 people a year visited the castle before the internal German border came down in late 1989, said Guenter Schuchardt, deputy director of the Wartburg

That more than tripled the Foundation.

next year, to 1.4 million. More than half of them toured the rooms of the Palas, which houses the Luther collection, frescoes from the 1850s and paintings by such as Lucas Cranach, along with tapestries and other relies of the Wartburg's past.

Tourism declined after that to about 1 million a year. Then in the spring of 1992, the Wartburg celebrated three anniversaries; made during a 1981 visit as vice president.

Mandela urges Clinton to help

President Nelson Mandela is urging President-elect Bill Clinton to work to accelerate the peace process in South Africa and to promote peace around the world, reports AFP. Mandela, at a news conference Tuesday in Washington, said, "I'm confident that the President-elect will take advantage of his youth with big freshness" to resolve conflicts around the world.