BCL (M-I) demands fresh date for Dhaka college polls

By DU Correspondent

The pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League (M-I) yesterday condemned the terrorist activities that it said had obstructed it submitting the nomination papers for the Dhaka College Central Students' Union polls Saturday.

The poll is scheduled to be held on February 18. The BCL(M-I) at a press conference at the Teachers' Students' Centre (TSC) of the Dhaka University yesterday demanded congenial atmosphere for holding election.

Meanwhile, in a statement yesterday the BCL (M-I) central leaders demanded a fresh date of election in a peaceful atmosphere.

According to sources, a group of youths obstructed the BCL (M-I) leaders while they went to the election commission room to submit the nomination papers Saturday, the last date for submission of the nomination papers for the students union polls.

Later the armed elements snatched away the nomination sheets and tore them into pieces.
