Ekushey observed in USA

Historic Ekushey was observed Sunday by Bangladeshis in Washington DC and elsewhere in the USA, according to a message received here, reports BSS.

In Washington the day began early in the morning when the national flag was lowered to half mast before a gathering of Bangladeshis at the embassy residence as a mark of respect to the martyrs who laid down their lives in the historic Language Movement.

A special munajat was offered seeking heavenly divine blessings for the continued progress and prosperity of the country.

Bangladesh Ambassador to USA Abul Ahsan was the chief guest at a function organised to observe the day by Bangladesh Association of Atlanta.

Relief goods sent for Nangalcote storm victims; JS told

The government has taken prompt action in sending relief goods for the storm-hit people of Nangalcote in Comilla district, Works Minister Barrister Rafiqul Islam Mia told the Jatiya Sangsad yesterday, reports BSS.

Refuting an allegation raised by the Jatiya Party member Monirul Haq Chowdhury that the government did not come forward quickly to provide succour to the storm-affected people in Nangalcote, the Minister listed the steps that the government had taken to provide immediate help to the victims.

Microbiological Research Instt soon: Majid

Agriculture and Irrigation, Water Development and Flood Control Minister Maj Gen M Majid-ul-Haq (Rtd) yesterday said a microbiological research institute would be established soon for the country's advancement in the technology, reports UNB.

Feasibility study is underway to set up the institute, he said addressing the 11th annual conference of Bangladesh Society of Microbiologists in the Bangladesh Agricultural Research Council auditorium.

The Minister underscored the need for utilising improved microbiological technology to check environmental pollution for ensuring health and hygiene as well as to increase production in the industrial sector.

The government is putting in the best efforts to increase the rate of agricultural production per year, he said and urged the microbiologists to contribute in growing more food with proper use of microbiology.

Ramadan timing in American Cultural Centre Library

The American Cultural Centre Library and Student Counselling will follow a special timing for its services during the month of Ramadan, reports UNB.

According to the new schedule, the library will remain open from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm and student counselling from 9:30 am to 2:30 pm Sunday through Thursday except government holidays.

Both will return to their present timings after Ramadan, said a USIS press release.
