Abbas seeks help for uplift of metropolis

By Staff Correspondent Dhaka City Corporation Mayor Mirza Abbas MP has called upon all to strengthen the hands of the present government for continuing the development efforts. Speaking at a discussion jointly organised by the Mohammadpur units of BNP, Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and Jubo Dal yesterday the Mayor sought cooperation of the city-dwellers for intensifying the improvement of Dhaka metropolis.

Presided over by Salahuddin Sarker, the discussion was also addressed, among others, by JCD Dhaka City president Abul Khayer Bhuiyan and Jubo Dal leader Anwar Hossain. The present government was pledge-bound for further improvement of the living standard of the people, Abbas said.

BN personnel urged to work sincerely

Chief of the Naval Staff Rear Admiral Mohammad Mohaiminul Islam yesterday called upon the BN personnel to devote themselves to their profession with the spirit of service, sincerity and sacrifice, reports UNB.

The Navy Chief was addressing a batch of new entry sailors of the Bangladesh Navy on the occasion of their passing out parade at BNS Shaheed Mozamem, a training establishment of the Navy near Kaptai lake in Chittagong. He reviewed the parade and took salute.

The Navy Chief also distributed awards among the outstanding new entry sailors.

Justice Abdur Rahman Chowdhury made judge-arbitrator

Justice Abdur Rahman Chowdhury has been appointed a Judge-Arbitrator by the International Court of Arbitration in Paris, says a press release. A pioneer of the State Language Movement, Justice Chowdhury is the first recipient of the 'Rashtra Bhasha Gold Medal' in 1992. The founder-president of the Institute of Human Rights and Legal Affairs, Bangladesh and the founder-chairman of the 'Liberty Forum', Justice Chowdhury has been in the forefront of the struggle for restoration of democracy and fundamental rights and rule of law.

Justice Chowdhury is leaving for London enroute to Paris next week to attend the Preliminary Session of the International Court of Arbitration. He is the first Bangladeshi who has been accorded with this honour.

Punjabis with unique motifs

By Staff Correspondent There was a marvellous show of 'Punjabis', being 200 in number, at the Goethe Institut, Dhaka yesterday. The show had been organised by four partners of 'Kapoor' - Tuhi, Ovi, Shubb, Ashish and Rontu. Apart from the designs being unique, the prices were reasonable, and suited the average middle-class budget, as they cost between Tk 250 to Tk 750.

The colours varied from black, red, pinkish and saffron yellow to light yellow, blue, mustard and white, with brown stripes and grey stripes. There was one which was white with the design of women in homes, talking to each other. This painted piece was for Tk 700. There was another that depicted folktales of 'Totakahani', with a gorgeous parrot, a pot of coloured flowers and a woman in 'shahar-kameez', and 'kurta', dancing with a tambourine before a pillar. The colours used in the embroidered work were pastel and subtle. It cost Tk 700.

Embossed colours depicted a Moghul ruler, relaxing on a bolster, the 'hukkah' shown in minute details along with a pillar, a basket of fruit and a cup of wine went to decorate another piece. This cost Tk 700 and had grey, dove and pink form of circles and lines in purple. This cost Tk 500. Fabric colour and beads went to decorate a black 'punjabi' with a blue and beige, sophisticated and aesthetic pattern. There were two parallel motifs and a circular one along the buttons and it was priced at Tk 500.

The 'Khaddar' in beige and brown material with a parallel coloured braids and bold, black stitches done with meticulous care and splendid harmony was for Tk 400.

A synthetic-cum-cotton pale yellow item had parallel lines in pale grey and horizontal designs with yellow, red, purple, orange and green along the buttons and the neck. The 'punjabis' appeared to be durable and the patterns were a feast for the eye of those with an aesthetic inclination.

'Apartheid violation of human rights'

Speakers at a symposium on Sunday urged the international community to fight against racism in all its forms and practices and uphold human dignity and conscience, reports BSS.

United Nations Association of Bangladesh (UNAB) organised the symposium at the auditorium of United Nations Information Centre in observance of the International Day for Elimination of Racial Discrimination. Charles Larsmont, Resident Representative of UNDP, was the main speaker. He called upon the international community to combat racial discrimination and for upholding the charter of the United Nations to protect human rights.

Charles Larsmont said Bangladesh demonstrated the commitment to the cause of equal rights and social justice worldwide by observing 'the day every year.' 'This indeed supports a most fundamental pillar of the United Nations as set forth in the UN charter,' he said. Syed Ahmed Hossain lauded the United Nations for its role against racial discrimination.
