

68 lakh sanctioned for Rajshahi New Degree College

SHAHI, Apr 6: State Minister for Education Princes Khan today said government has sanctioned Taka 68 lakh for development and extension of Rajshahi New Degree College to advance science education, BSS.

Princes Khan was addressing the inauguration ceremony of the new hostel of Rajshahi New Degree College. The function was addressed by Rajshahi Mizanur Khan, Principal of the college, Professor Abdul Majid, vice president of Students Union of the college, M Hasud, and other officials.

The government has sanctioned Taka 50 lakh for construction of the 50 seated girls' hostel of the college.

The state minister said our economic growth would not increase until we could ensure people's participation in development activities through educating women. Realising this, he said, the BNP government had sanctioned ever highest budget for education sector. Compulsory Primary Education and Mass Literacy Programme had been launched to ensure education for all by the year 2000, he said.

Khan said necessary measures would be taken to set up psychology and statistics departments in Rajshahi New Government Degree College.

Biswas for concerted efforts to increase love for life

President Abdur Rahman Biswas has called for making concerted efforts to increase the love for life by forging the unity of people of all walks of life, reports BSS.

In a message on the eve of the World Health Day, President Biswas said the call of the World Health Organisation (WHO) to resist unexpected deaths and disabilities by safeguarding and valuable human lives is significant. He said it is our noble responsibility to save people from accidents, violence and frustration through establishing normal values of life by collective endeavours.

President Biswas said that the present government had taken all possible steps for the welfare of the people. Private organisations, voluntary establishments, social concerns and women and youth communities have to take vow to continue all out efforts in performing their responsibilities along with the government endeavours, he stressed.

He said according to the WHO, 35 lakh people died in accidents and acts of violence and three and a half crore people fell prey to disability every year in the universe. These death and disabilities brought untold sufferings in family and social lives, he said, adding that in our country, social problems connected with deaths and health problems were in the increase due to transport and work place accidents, violence and frustration. Massive awareness among the people have to be created for removing these problems, he said.

Declaring unanimity with the world community, President Biswas lauded the noble efforts for making the day a significant one in our country.

He wished the World Health Day all success.

Bangladesh-born Australian honoured

By Staff Correspondent
Rosalind Rodrigues, a Bangladesh-born Australian, has been awarded an Australia Day Medal for her sincerity and dedication to duty.

Rosalind was conferred the honour in January this year by her adopted country and her employer, Australian Defence Industries (ADI) in Albury-Wodonga where she had arrived from Bangladesh 19 years ago.

"When the Company experienced hard times and underwent changes, Rosalind was obliged to show the highest level of professionalism," said Dr David Cash, the Company General Manager (Development).

"Discretion is something which comes naturally to her and she can always be trusted to deal with the most sensitive material in the proper way", he added.

Born in the Port City of Chittagong, Bangladesh, Rosalind served as an Executive Secretary of M/S James Finlay and Co Ltd, Chittagong from 1967 to 1973, the year she migrated to Australia.
