Democratic practice impossible if hartals continue, says Huda

Information Minister Barister Nazmul Huda yesterday urged the opposition parties to take into account economic impact before calling hartal, strike and blockade, reports UNB.

"It's impossible to carry on democratic practice if destructive activities like hartal and strike continue in the country," he told the inaugural session of a fortnight-long training course on Economic Reporting at the Press Institute of Bangladesh (PIB).

Presided over by PIB Chairman Gazi Shamsur Rahman, it was also addressed by Information Secretary Nuruddin Al-Masud and PIB Director General Prof Tawhidul Anwar.

Nazmul Huda alleged that the immediate post-liberation government party and some other parties mainly dabbled in politics but did not consider the state of country's economy.

The Information Minister called upon the journalists to highlight economic impact and other harmful consequence of hartal to make common people aware of such actions.

'Voluntarism key to success of NGOs'

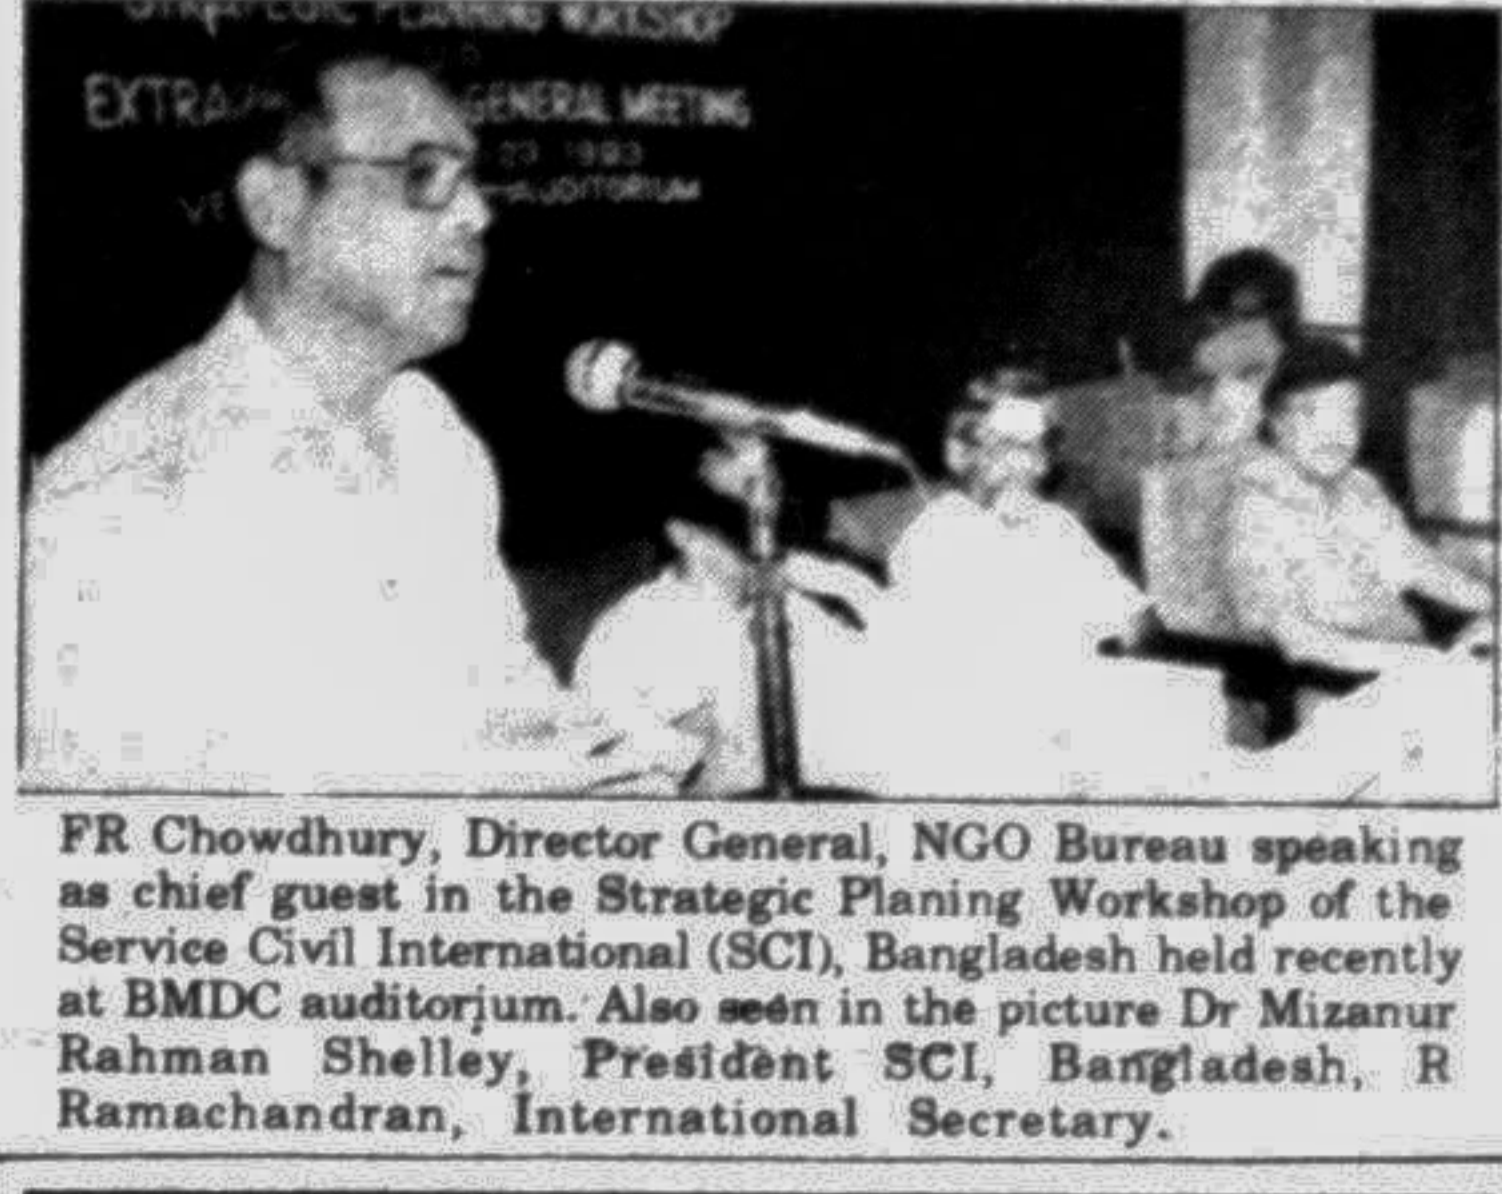

F R Chowdhury, Director General, NGO Bureau has stressed the need for voluntarism as a key to the success of NGOs in their efforts for development of Bangladesh, says a press release.

He was speaking as the chief guest in the inaugural session of the two-day, "Strategic Planning Workshop" together with the extra-ordinary general meeting of the Service Civil International (SCI). Bangladesh held recently at BMDC auditorium. Also seen in the picture Dr Mizanur Rahman Shelley, President SCI, Bangladesh, R Ramachandran, International Secretary.

Dr. Mizanur Rahman Shelley, President, Service Civil International (SCI), Bangladesh chaired the inaugural session of the workshop on April 22 and emphasized the significance of strategic planning for fruitful endeavours in development.

Distinguished social workers presented papers and took part in discussions on different issues related to the strategic planning.

77 councillors and 25 observers of 9 local units and 3 groups from different parts of Bangladesh participated to formulate policies and strategy to implement long term participatory development programmes.
