Identified quarter launching movement against people: Huda

RAJSHAHI, May 8: Information Minister Barrister Nazmul Huda said the people have voted BNP to power for five years for the third time, reposing their confidence and trust in its development and production oriented politics, reports BSS.

He said BNP always thinks about the people of the soil and does politics, aimed at ensuring their basic demands.

The Information Minister was addressing a public meeting at Kamargaon under Tanur thana yesterday.

The Information Minister said democracy has been established in the country through nine years relentless struggle. He said an identified quarter has resorted to hartals and acts of destruction by raising unnecessary issues to hamper production when BNP government under the leadership of Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia is working for the overall development of roads, power and other sectors and implementing the 19point programmes of Shaheed President Ziaur Rahman.

Barrister Huda said this identified quarter does not want peace in the country and is launching movement against the people to obstruct the developmental efforts of BNP government. He said this quarter should wait till the next election to come to power through constitutional process and also seek people's mandate in the next election on
