Joint study on ARI begins

Dhaka Shishu Hospital (DSH) and the Department of Internal Medicine of the Institute of Tropical Medicine, Nagasaki University, Japan have jointly begun a study on Acute Respiratory Infections (ARI), reports BSS.

The study, to be conducted in the Department of Microbiology of DSH at Dhaka, will help in understanding the anti-biotic susceptibility of micro-organisms.

An expert team on respiratory diseases from the University of Nagasaki comprising Dr Tsuyoshi Nagatake, Kiwao Watanabe and Dr Kamruddin Ahmed are now in Dhaka conducting the joint collaboration study at DSH.

The current study represents transfer of technology from Japan to Bangladesh which will improve diagnostic ability of the Department of Microbiology of DSH. Through this collaboration between Nagasaki University and Dhaka Shishu Hospital, the level of the latter's Microbiology Department is expected to attain international standard in the field of isolation of micro-organism from respiratory disease.

Newspapers can help combat terrorism, says President

President Abdur Rahman Biswas has urged the journalist community to maintain objectivity and fairness in disseminating information and to interpret events in correct perspective, reports UNB.

The President made this call when representatives of Barisal Divisional Sangbadpatri Parishad met him at Bangabhaban yesterday (Tuesday).

He said there was complete freedom of the press in the country under the present government and that freedom should not be misused under any circumstances.

Biswas advised them to inform, educate and motivate the people to participate in nation-building activities, saying that no nation can prosper without people's participation and hard-working in a democratic system.

Terming the newspapers as conscience keeper of the society, the President said that it can play a vital role in moulding public opinion in favour of maintaining peace, eradicating illiteracy and poverty and combating terrorism.

He called upon them to publish more and more rural and regional news and reflect hopes and aspirations of commonman.

President Biswas opined that setting up of divisional headquarter in Barisal was a means to achieve overall socio-economic development of the southern region.

Leaders of the parishad thanked the President for his initiative in creating a new division with Barisal as its headquarters. They informed him of financial difficulties of the regional newspapers and appealed to the government to distribute more advertisements to them.

President of the parishad and Editor of 'Dainik Biplabi Bangladesh' Nurul Alam Farid and its General Secretary and Editor of 'Rupantar, Patuakhli, K M Enayet Hossain were, among others, present on the occasion.
