Help protect democracy, Speaker to students

KHULNA, May 26: The Speaker of the Jatiya Sangsad Shaikh Razzaque Ali today called upon the students community to help protect hardearned democracy by maintaining peace and academic atmosphere in their respective campus, reports BSS.

He was addressing as chief guest at the installation ceremony of Khulna Sundarban College Students' Union at the college premises here.

Presided over by Principal of the College Md Shahidul Islam the function was also addressed, among others, by Mayor of Khulna Shaikh Tayebur Rahman and President of Khulna City BNP M Nurul Islam.

Shaikh Razzaque Ali said parliamentary democracy in Bangladesh was introduced for fulfilling the hopes and aspirations of the people.

He emphasised the need for national consensus irrespective of differences of opinions and party affiliations for the solution of the basic problems of the country.

Shaikh Tayebur Rahman said students had to devote themselves in studies for building up their career and to make them fit for future leadership of the country.

Later, Speaker Shaikh Razzaque Ali attended the installation ceremony of Khulna Arts College and inaugurated the newly constructed Mistrikhana market of Khulna City Corporation.

He also attended the function organised by Khulna City Corporation in connection with the 94th birth anniversary of rebel Poet Kazi Nazrul Islam at Zia Public Hall audito-

Speaking on the occasion Shaikh Razzaque Ali urged all concerned to ensure more research on the creation of the poet so that his work could be reflected in our everyday life.
