Attacks not meant to rekindle war: Iran

Venezuelan president may face trial today

CARACAS, May 26: The trial of suspended President Carlos Andres Perez on embezzlement charges may start Thursday, Venezuela's Supreme Court announced Tuesday, reports AP.

Carlos Andres Perez

Although local reports said the court would open the trial Tuesday, the justices did only reviewed the Senate's authorization to try the president. The case will be the first trial Venezuela's 35 years of trial.

reports Reuter from Colombo.

trict on Tuesday, he said.

camp, the spokesman said.

Somalis.

quarters in Washington.

from Islamabad.

lateral matters.

Delhi.

The session came as Venezuelan politicians watched developments in Guatemala where President Jorge Serrano suspended constitutional guarantees and closed the Congress and Supreme Court.

"This repeats the coup of Alberto Fujimori in Peru,' Acting President Octavio Lepage told reporters.

Venezuela broke relations with Peru after Fujimori, backed by Peru's military, suspended the country's Constitution and closed its Congress last April. Dissidents within Venezuela's military staged two coup attempts against Perez last year.

Meanwhile, the ruling political party and the two major opposition parties asked Lepage, formerly the Congress president, not to serve more than 30 days.

Party leaders said they want Congress to name an interim president as soon as possible.

The Constitution says once the President is suspended to face trial, the Congress president takes over while the Congress picks an interim of a sitting president in president to serve during the

Lankan troops kill 3 Tigers: Three Shri Lankan Tamil rebels were killed when troops ambushed guerillas in the east, a military spokesman said on Wednesday,

Government troops attacked the rebels in the Welioya dis-

When they were returning to base, one soldier was killed

He said it was an army mine and not one laid by the guerilwhen he stepped on an anti-personnel mine outside the army

Three soldiers were slightly wounded in the incident.

US troops in Somalia to get medal:

All US military forces who served in Somalia as part of the humanitarian relief effort Operation Restore Hope will receive a special Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Pentagon 1992, to begin the operation. The effort was transferred to United Nations peacekeepers on May 4 after US and allied forces restored enough order in the East African nation to permit the transport of food and medical supplies to starving about 25,800 US soldiers, saflors, airmen and marines.

At its peak in January, Operation Restore Hope totalled in a related development, the Pentagon announced that Marine Corps Lt. Gen Robert B Johnston, who commanded all

US forces in Somalia, has been assigned as deputy chief of staff for manpower and reserve affairs at Marine Corps head-

Storm hits Iran: A storm with hailstones weighing 150 grammes (5.3 ounces) caused 15 million dollars of damage to fields and orchards in eastern Iran, hectares (5,400 acres) near Neyshabur, 680 km (420 miles)

Ishaq honours Chinese air chief:

President Ghulam Ishaq Khan conferred Pakistan's highest military award on visiting Chinese Air Force Chief Lieutenant-

General Cao Shuangming in Islamabad Tuesday, reports AFP

closer ties between the two pountries, an official statement had a meeting with the President to discuss regional and bi-

Rebels kill 6 in Tripura: Tribal guerillas gunned down four policemen and two government employees

Tuesday after ambushing their vehicle in India's Tripura state, the Press Trust of India (PTI) reported, says AFP from New Tribal Force (ATTF) in the tiny far-eastern state, PTI said.

The ATTF is seeking Tripura's secession from India.

was returning after distributing wages to his employees.

Four others were injured in the attack by the All Tripura

The policemen were escorting a rubber board official who 9 Filipinos flee jail: Nine Filipino prisoners escaped from jail Wednesday by sawing off the bars of a cell window and jumping into a waiting boat on a nearby river, 40, who had been detained on charges ranging from illegal possession of firearms and drugs to murder and robbery.

Police have launched a search for the prisoners, aged 21 to

The nine were in a cell with 14 other prisoners in a prison

The award was in recognition of his services in promoting

Before the ceremony at the presidency, the Air Force Chief

The General arrived in Pakistan Thursday as the head of a

The storm was the worst in eight years. It damaged 2,200

Tehran radio said on Tuesday, reports Reuter from Nicosia.

cast of Tehran, on Monday, the radio said.

delegation for an eight-day official visit.

police said, reports Reuter from Manila.

jail in the Mantla district of Navolas.

US Marines went ashore at Mogadishu on December 9, announced Tuesday, reports AP from Washington.

Baghdad vows revenge for cross-border air raids

BAGHDAD, May 26: Iraq vowed revenge today for Iran's cross-border air raids on the people." exile Mujahideen Khalq, reports Reuter. "Iraq is capable of giving them (Iranians) new lessons at the right time", declared the government newspaper Al-Jumhouriyah in a front-page editorial.

"They will not escape punishment," said Al-Iraq, a newspaper published by small progovernment Kurdish factions. Iran sent warplanes on Tuesday to bomb two bases in Iraq used by its guerilla oppo-The air raids were the first for more than a year, apparently in response to a recent wave of Mujahideen sabotage inside Iran. The Foreign Ministry called in Iran's Charge d'Affaires on Tuesday and told told him that Baghdad would do "anything it considers appropriate to defend the integrity of its airspace, the sovereignty of its land and the security of its

The raids inflicted little damage on the two bases, Al-Ashraf, 90 km (50 miles) from the Iranian borders and Anzali close to the small Iraqi town of Jalula, 35 km (20 miles) from the international borders.

Jumhouriyah said Iran's actions were typical of "bankrupt cowards" who would never have dared to strike without encouragement from Washing-

The Baath Party newspaper

Al-Thawra said Iran, which fought a ruinous war with Iraq from 1980 to 1988, was refusing to learn from the past. "We warn the rulers of Iran of the consequences of playing with the fire of war," the newspaper said. "Iraq is still strong and able to foil their schemes and dispel their vicious dreams."

Two women of the Muslim-controlled district of Mostar, which is cut off from water

Violence takes 47 lives so far

Police swoop on PAC affects

S African multiparty talks

JOHANNESBURG, May 26: pre-dawn arrests of at least 49 transition to black majority members of the group and its APLA (Azanian People's Liberation Army) guerilla wing.

the detainees' immediate release, saying it could not participate in talks, which it joined just two months ago, led government and Nelson

Mandelas' African National

Congress (ANC) - the country's two main political players

- had too much to lose to let momentum slip away just as progress was being made on a Hekmatyar wants truce to last

Islami and its Shi'ite Hezb-I-Wahdat allies have killed more than 1,000 people and injured people have died in brutal battles between rival guerilla factions since they took power from the fallen communist government in April 1992, and more than a third of Kabul's

1.5 million residents have fled

Kabul in the past 13 months for security reasons but said he would do so within days to hold the first meeting of his new cabinet, announced last Hekmatyar has not entered the city.

Altogether some 6,000

5,500 the past two weeks.

The analysts said the white-while its people were in jail.

But PAC leaders demanded supplies, push a wheelbarrow with cans of water Tuesday.

newspaper published by President Saddam Hussein's son Uday. "They are like dogs licking their wounds."

The Mujahideen fought on Baghdad's side Against the Islamic government in Tehran during the 1980-88 Iran-Iraq

It maintains large, wellequipped and well-funded forces in Iraq. Its statements and publications speak hopefully of some future day when it will drive the "criminal mullahs of the Kohmeini regime," from Tehran.

The Mujahideen recently stepped up sabotage raids inside Iran in the run-up to a presidential election set for June 11.

Iran blames the attacks on infiltrators from Iraq but the Mujahideen insist they are mounted from bases within Reuter from Nicosia adds: "Iranis ruled by sick and Iran today defended its air atrotten minds," said Babel, a tack on rebel bases in Iraq as

-AFP/UNB photo

don't think the negotiations will falter in any serious way - too much is riding on them," said Mcrvyn Frost, a Party and the ANC have very pressing reasons to keep the negotiations going," he told four days of violence in Johannesburg's volatile townships rose to at least 47 on Tuesday with the discovery of Thursday after 20 days of wrangling in the eastern city of Jalalabad among the nine preparations and when these are competed I will go into Kabul," said Hekmatyar. He declined to say what these were but Hezb-I-Islami source said he needed to have a safe corridor set up to move in the of the past year since the end of the 14-year insurgency at Charasyab, from where he has directed several blistering as saults to try to win supremacy.

Hekmatyar has spent much

"We are making some main guerilla leaders.

20 more bodies, police said.

Meanwhile the death toll in "Both the (ruling) National political scientist.

Reuters.

legitimate defence and said the strike was not meant to rekindle the two countries 1980-88 war.

A day after sending fighterbombers to hit Mujahideen Khalq camps in Iraq, Iranian officials in Tehran and New York said they were not renouncing the UN brokered ceasefire with Iraq and wanted trouble-free relations with

Deputy Speaker of parliament Hassan Rowhani said the raid was a "decisive response" to a spate of Mujahideen cross border sabotage attacks, Tehran Radio reported.

"The Islamic republic of "The Iraqi regime should know that only

Cong-I loses Patna seat in bye-polls

NEW DELHI, May 26: In dia's ruling Congress (I) Party suffered a humiliating election defeat on Tuesday, losing a parliament seat to a centrist grouping in the country's east,

The Janata Dal (People's Party) bagged the prestigious the Hindu-revivalist Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) (India. People's Party) by more than 150,000 votes, the Press Trust of India (PTI) reported.

The Janata Dal nomined won 338,000 votes against 62,000 for the Congress (I) in the keenly-fought battle, ac-

Election historic defeat for Khmer Rouge: Sihanouk

PHNOM PENH, May 26:

French parliamentary delegation the success of the polls was a historic rejection of the Khmer Rouge, who repudiated a 1991 peace agreement and told citizens they would be regarded as traitors if they cast

More than four million people, or 85 per cent of registered voters, had cast their ballots by Tuesday night, the third day of the six-day poll, remember one thing from our meeting, this election is a historic defeat for the Khmer Rouge and they will be wiped out of history in the future," a member of the delegation quoted the Prince as saying.

Baghdad.

Iran will never have the slightest doubt in defending the country and cutting off the hand of the aggressor," he told the assembly.

peaceful coexistence is in the interest of the nations in the region, Rowhani added.

reports AFP.

Patna constituency, defeating cording to PTI.

Patna was among two parliamentary and 16 provincial states which went to the polls on May 19. The Congress (I) won the other parliamentary constituency, but lost in as many as 12 state assembly

Three people were killed and several others injured in violence during voting in Patna, and the election commission ordered a repoll in some parts of the city, which is the capital of Janata Dalruled Bihar state.

The election debacle has sparked fresh dissidence in the Congress (I) against Prime Minister PV Narasimha Rao, who is now in tour in central Asia. The Congress (I) took power in new Delhi in June

Head of State Prince Norodom Sihanouk said today the huge turnout of voters in UN run national elections meant the Khmer Rouge guerilla faction could play no role in the future of Cambodia, reports Reuter.

The Prince told a visiting

UN organisers said.

"Remember what I say if you

BOSTON: The fate of Massachusetts state police Sgt Ralph Weaver's moustache rests with a judge, reports AP. "I don't think anyone has the right to judge the way I look

Weaver went to court Monday, seeking to overturn a regulation that would force him to choose by July 1 between his moustache of 23 years and his badge.

Off the Record

'They wanted

big family'

who were reported in good condition, says AP.

not unusual with multiple births.

three minutes and went smoothly.

caution.

more details.

too," McCabe said.

INDIANAPOLIS: A woman gave birth Tuesday to six babies,

Becki Dilley, 27, delivered the four girls and two boys by Caesarean section, said Dianne McCabe, spokeswoman for the Women's Hospital. They were about nine weeks premature, six was a surprise," McCabe said. She said the delivery lasted

"All six are stable and doing very well," she said.

big family. They got it all at once," McCabe said.

Buenos Aires, Argentina, gave birth to sextuplets.

The doctor had anticipated quintuplets, "so baby number

It was the first pregnancy for Mrs Dilley and her husband,

They've been trying for seven years because they wanted a McCabe said she was unsure if Mrs Dilley had been taking any fertility drugs, as is common before multiple births. The hospital planned a news conference Wednesday to release

Mrs Dilley was resting and "dad is doing surprisingly well,

Last Thursday, a 29-year-old woman in Leeds, England, who had been treated with fertility drugs for five years gave birth to sextuplets. And on Saturday, a 28-year-old woman in

Fate of his moustache rests with a judge

Keith. She had ben at the hospital for several weeks as a pre-Weaver said he understands some bans on facial hair, such as prohibiting firemen from having beards. But a neatly cropped moustache? A US District Court trial over his lawsuit lasted less than a after I've been a police officer for 23 years," Weaver said.

half hour and no witnesses were called. Lawyers in the case had agreed on the facts and the decision will be made by Judge Rya Zobel. She did not say when she would rule.

Weaver's attorney, Kethleen McCarthy, argued the ban was arbitrary.

But Assistant Attorney General Rosemarie Gale, representing the state police, said the no-moustache rule was meant to promote "esprit de corps".

NY steals Grammy Awards back from LA NEW YORK: New York has stolen the Grammy Awards back from Los Angeles, and Mayor David Dinkins cited one determining factor Tuesday for the relocation: attitude, reports AP. "My good friends in LA, they're wonderful people, but they're sort of blase," Dinkins said about his West Coast competition for the 36th annual awards next year. "They say 'Oh, well...' But not us. We really love it." The Grammys will return to Radio City Music Hall for the third time in four years. During the '80s, Los Angeles routinely was host of the awards; the 1988 Radio City show was New York's first in seven years.

Los Angeles, the host of this year's awards, has failed to deliver the same cooperation that is standard in New York City, said Michael Greene, president of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

Police patrol Lhasa to prevent fresh rioting

BEIJING, May 26: Thousands of police patrolled Lhasa on Wednesday to prevent renewed turmoil by Tibetans who protested for two days against Chinese rule, reports

Employees who answered the telephones at two hotels in Lhasa, the capital of Tibet, said there were no new distur-

One said that 2,000 to 3,000 police were patrolling the streets of Lhasa and that most residents were staying indoors.

"All the people are frightened," said the employee. The phone line deteriorated before he could identify himself.

He said shops remained

Tibetans gathered at the city center again Tuesday. chanting pro-independence slogans and denouncing newly reported the unrest.

closed for the third straight when thousands of Tibetans marched through the streets and staged a peaceful sit-in outside a government compound. After security forces broke up the protest with tear gas and bursts of gunfire into the air, Tibetans roamed the city, stoning shops owned by ethnic Chinese and a police raised prices and rents.

China's official media have not

The protests began Monday

US blasts undemocratic moves in Guatemala

WASHINGTON, May 26: The Clinton administration on Tuesday condemned the suspension of democratic rule in Guatemala and tried to persuade Guatemalan authorities to reverse their decision, reports AP.

This illegitimate course of action threatens to place Guatemala outside the democratic community of nations," a White House statement said. "We strongly condemn such efforts to resolve Guatemala's problems through non-democratic means." Assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs Bernard Aronson telephoned President Jorge Serrano on Tuesday morning to express strong US opposition to his moves and he urged him to reverse them.

Aronson made the call hours after Serano ousted the Congress and Supreme Court and said he would rule by decree until a new constitution is drafted.

State Department spokesman Richard Boucher said US officials are in touch with the Organization of American States.

Police protection for Lankan politicians

COLOMBO, May 26 : Shri Lankan party leaders and other politicians who have com plained of threats to their lives by unidentified persons are to be provided with police protection, reports Xinhua.

The government directive to the Defence Ministry on the issue will be effective from Tuesday, officials sources here said today.

The sources said that the Defence Ministry has already instructed the police department to take appropriate steps to ensure that full protection is given to all party leaders and politicians.

This move by the government would help the security authorities to arrest those who possess and carry arms illegally for personal protection. they udded

China's democracy activist freed after 12 years after ascending to top power. BEIJING, May 26: One of A countrywide swoop by police on the black militant Pan

Africanist Congress (PAC) has thrown South African democracy talks into temporary disarray but not completely off track, political analysts said, sion on Tuesday to suspend its participation in the 26-party negotiations was a setback but the democratic process had pulling out of the negotiations completely after Tuesday's

The PAC stopped short of

KABUL, May 26: Prime Minister-designate Gulbuddin

Hekmatyar vowed on Tuesday to bring lasting peace to Afghanistan and to make his long-delayed entry into Kabul soon from his fortified base on last and the fighting to be finished for ever," he told

Reuters at his heavily defended headquarters at Charasyab, 20 second day in Kabul where bitter fighting between government forces and Hekmatyar's radical Hezb-l-

The shaky truce held for a km (12 miles) south of Kabul

"We want this ceasefire to the outskirts of the capital.

reached a point of no return.

They said the PAC's decireports Reuter.

China's longest held demor racy activists, Xu Wenli, was released from a Beijing prison Wednesday after serving all but three years of a 15-year sentence, reports AP.

"I want to thank... people from countries all over the world for their more than 10 years of concern, help and support," Xu told foreign reporters who surrounded him after he arrived at his Beijing home from the city's Prison No

Appearing in high spirits, he denied that he had committed any crime, saying what he did 'was for my country and

Xu. 49, was arrested in 1981 during Deng Xiaoping's first crackdown on dissent Xu was convicted the next year of political crimes for publishing a pro-democracy magazine, and kept in solitary confinement for the next 11 years. Western governments and international human rights groups have long appealed for his release.

His wife, Kang Tong, has said he is in poor health from malnutrition and inadequate exercise. He appeared thin, with a gaunt face, receding hairline and big gaps where teeth have fallen out.

Xu said his missing teeth were not related to his imprisonment and said he had gained a few pounds while in captivity. Joking and laughing with reporters, he steered clear of making any political statements. Asked if he planned to resume his pro-democracy activities, he said he needed time to study the situation. Asked what he thinks now of the democracy movement he was involved in, Xu said, 'History will have to evaluate this movement. It's not for me to say." He declined to speculate on

When told that the official reason was that he had shown a good attitude, he laughed and said, "What good attitude?" Xu was not told of his release until 9am Wednesday. He left the prison about two hours later. He said authorities did not put any conditions on his release or say that his activities would be restricted.

the reason for his release.

Xu Wenli with his 20-year-old daughter Xu Jing in Beijing Wednesday after his release from -Star TV photo prison.

Clinton's approval rating drops

WASHINGTON, May 26 Polls show that fewer than half of Americans approve of the way President Clinton is doing his job, and public support for his economic plan has deelined, reports AP.
A USA Today-CNN-Gallup

Poll over the weekend showed 44 per cent of Americans approve of Clinton's performance overall, while 46 percent give him a negative rating. That compares with a 58 percent approval rating shortly after he took office in January and 20 per cent disapproving. An ABC News poll found his approval rating dropped sharply in the last month from 59 per cent in late April to 46 per cent in a weekend poll. His disapproval rating rose to 59 per cent, from 39 per cent in late April. The polls also showed growing hostility toward Clinton's economic plan.