Referring to the low rate of literacy in the rural areas, the President asked the Union Parishad office-bearers to make allout efforts for success of the Compulsory Primary Education programme.

In this context, the President declared that he would offer a prize to their Union parishad as incentive if they could eradicate illiteracy from their union within a short time.

New banking hours slated

By Staff Correspondent Leaders of the Bangladesh Bank Employees Federation Saturday condemned the extension of the banking hours.

They demanded a separate pay-scale for the bank employees. The bank employees yesterday held a country-wide demonstration to protest the extension of the bank hours.

At a meeting held at the Head Office of the Sonali Bank at Motifheel in Dhaka, the CBA leaders demanded immediate cancellation of the extended banking hours.

Decisions hailed

By Staff Correspondent Leaders of the Bus-Truck Owners' Association hailed recent government decisions on evicting the hawkers and extending banking hours.

A statement of the association issued by its general secretary MA Gafur termed the decisions revolutionary saying the government should take immediate steps to resolves the problems of the street vendors.
