that every conscious man must be perturbed by child prostitution. Combined efforts of all can only solve the problem, he added

Tariqul said the government is aware of the problem and formulation of a stern law against the middlemen and child smugglers who involve minor girls in the 'flesh trade' is underway.

Referring to the other government efforts to rehabilitate the minor girls involved in the evil trade and other anti-society activities, he said a centre for them would also be established soon where the girls would be provided necessary vocational training to help them lead a healthy life.

"There might be differing opinions regarding the prostitution in the country, but child prostitution can in no way be allowed, he said.

Two muggers

3 die in separate incidents in city

By DMCH Correspondent

Three persons died in separate incidents in the city and its suburb yesterday.

One Nasrin Akhter allegedly committed suicide reportedly taking poison on Sunday. Nasrin died after struggling for nearly 72 hours with death. Family sources said, the victim took poison following quarrel with her father-in-law at Savar on the outskirt of the Another young girl, meeting with a road accident earlier, succumbed to her injuries yesterday noon. The victim Nargis, 16, and her sister Tahmina were knocked down by a speeding jeep on Saturday at Daudkandi Ferry Ghat when Tahmina died on the spot. Nargis died yesterday.

The sisters were reportedly going to school when they met with the accident. Family members at the hospital alleged that the killer vehicle, a Pajero jeep, belonged to the PS to the Minister for Forest and Environment.

Meanwhile, early yesterday one Amir Hossain was killed in a road accident at Tejgaon in the city. No details of the accident were, however, available.

All the bodies were sent to the Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) for autopsy.
