BWF appeal

The Bangladesh Workers Federation (BWF) has appealed for donations from the members of the public for the medical treatment of its president MA Muttalib.

A former member of parliament and a freedom fighter, Muttalib has been suffering from complicated physical ailments and recently been hospitalised, says a press release.

After examining the medical records, a senior lecturer and consultant at the King's College Hospital in London Dr. MA Matin, who is now on a visit here, advised the BWF president treatment in the United Kingdom.

But the BWF president himself is unable to meet the high costs for his treatment in the UK.

The BWF central committee has, therefore, appealed to its members, trade unions, sympathisers and members of the public to donate any amount of money to facilitate his treatment abroad.

BWF has opened two bank accounts for accepting the donations: Account number W-10 with Sonali Bank, Malibagh Branch, Dhaka-1217 and the other account number-60673242 with Barclays Bank, Tottenham Court Road in London.
