Badruddoza tells seminar Some teachers engaged in campus politics

Deputy Leader of Parliament Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday called upon the students, teachers and guardians to resist terrorism in the educational institutions, reports BSS.

Prof Chowdhury said not only students are engaged in terrorists activities but some of the teachers are also engaged in the campus politics for their own interest and they are creating unrest in the educational institutions. In this connection, he said the government is trying to look into the causes of terrorism and eradicate it.

The Deputy Leader was speaking at a seminar titled "Causes of Backwardness of Bangladesh in Education and its Remedies", jointly organised by the Bangladesh Literacy Society and the weekly 'Shikkhapatra' in observance of the International Literacy Day at the Jatiya Press Club auditorium.

Deputy Leader of the Opposition in parliament Abdus Samad Azad also spoke in the seminar.

Prof Chowdhury said the education system should be made attractive and income-generating for expanding the primary and mass education programmes. He said the primary education should be made attractive to check drop-outs.

The Deputy Leader of the opposition in his speech asked all concerned to come forward for extending education in the society. He said for developing education in the society all should come with cordiality and sincerity.

Prof M Shamsul Haq, Chairman of the University Grants Commission, presided over the seminar. Two key-note papers were presented in the seminar by Textile Secretary A H Mofazzal Karim and Prof Md Osman Gani.
