

Crises of leadership in every sphere of society : Badruddoza

Deputy Leader of Jatiya Sangsad Prof AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday urged the students to devote themselves to the task of acquiring knowledge and developing human qualities to provide leadership in various fields in future, reports BSS.

There are crises of leadership in every sphere of society, be it politics, teaching profession or business, he said and asked the students to prepare themselves to fill in this vacuum in the future.

He was speaking at a function, organised by Dhaka-based Feni Samity to accord reception to students hailing from Feni, who had made brilliant results in the recent SSC and HSC examinations and to award scholarships to meritorious students.

Held at the Jatiya Press Club, the function was also addressed State Minister for Textile Major (ret'd) Abdul Mannan, Whip of the Jatiya Sangsad Mahbubul Alam Tara, Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof. Emajuddin Ahmed, former adviser to the interim government Kazi Fazlur Rahman, former Air Chiefs Air Vice-Marshal (ret'd) AG Mahmud and Air Vice-Marshal (Ret'd) Sultan Mahmud, Former Editor of Bangladesh Observer Obaidul Huq, eminent journalist and president of Bangladesh Olympic Association Gias Kamal Chowdhury, and General Secretary of the Feni Samity and former president of Dhaka Union of Journalist Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury.

The function was presided over by Shajahan Kabir, president of the Feni Samity.

State Minister for Textiles Major (ret'd) Abdul Mannan said the BNP government had given top priority to the education sector.
