UN-Iraq talks on oil sale fail

UNITED NATIONS, Oct 7: Talks between the United Nations and Iraq on the sale of up to 1.6 billion US dollar of Iraq! oil have failed, a UN spokesman said yesterday, reports Reuter.

"These ... were not successful. The Secretary-General was not able to reach agreement with the Iraqis on this," the spokesman said.

Secretary-General Boutros Boutros-Ghali reported the news to the Security Council during closed-door consultations on Wednesday following a meeting he held Tuesday night with Iraqi Foreign Minister Mohammad Saeed al-Sahaf.

Referring to the weapons talks, the UN spokesman said: "If there is a success — and let me underline the word 'if' - in the talks - on the overall sanctions, and if the Iraqis meet all the requirements of the council, and if the council makes the decision to lift those, then the 'oil for food' talks become academic, because they would be taken care of in the overall negotiations.

A Security Council source said Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister Tareaq Aziz was likely to come to New York In November to make another plea to the council to scrap the sanctions. Council sources said Iraq formally told Boutros-Ghali it would not resume the talks on limited oil sales, last held in July, and instead would try to get the sanctions rescinded completely — a decision which rests with the Security Council.

Boutros-Ghali told the Iragis he was not sure they would obtain this, according to diplomats at the meeting.

Western council members said privately they believed Iraq was still a long way off from having sanctions lifted. One envoy said Baghdad should release foreign prisoners from jail as a move to "create a climate of confidence."

Iraqi oil sales have been barred under UN sanctions imposed following Iraq's August 1990 invasion of Kuwait.

But under two 1991 Security Council resolutions Baghdad would be allowed to sell up to 1.6 billion US dollar of oil over six months to finance the purchase of food and other hu-

Iraq has balked at the UN terms, which would involve close monitoring both of the limited oil sales and of the purchase and distribution of the supplies bought with the proceeds. Lifting the sanctions would depend on Baghdad filling council resolutions requiring the disclosure and scrapping of its weapons of mass destruction and agreeing to future monitoring of its arms potential to ensure it did not re-acquire forbidden weapons.
