Reopen JU soon, demands BCL

Jahangirnagar University unit of pro-Awami League Chhatra League Thursday warned of a greater student movement if their varisty was not reopened within a week, reports UNB.

The ultimatum was issued at a press conference at the Jatiya Press Club where the Chhatra League demanded immediate reopening of the university to save the academic life of thousands of students.

The university was closed sine die on July 29 following a violent incident which left at least 25 people including 10 teachers injured.

A written statement read out by JU unit BCL general secretary Mohammad Akhter Hossain also demanded immediate arrest of the terrorists involved in the campus violence.

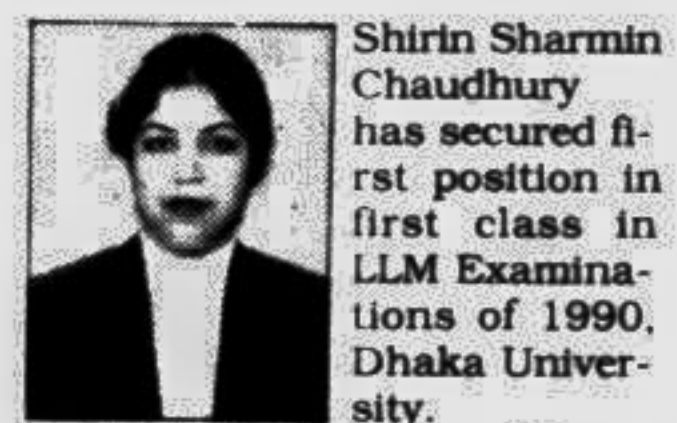

The BCL leader urged the government to take necessary steps to reopen the university in view of session jam which has already culminated to an alarming state.

Replying to a question about the 'greater movement', the BCL leaders said they would gherao the office of Vice-Chancellor if their demands were not met by October 14.

The leaders said they had submitted memorandum to the VC urging him several times to reopen the university, but two months and 10 days had elapsed without any progress.

They alleged that the terrorists were roaming under the nose of law enforcing agencies as police remained inactive. The press conference was attended, among others, by central leaders Nirmal Guha.
