'S M Ali establishes Star as a trend-setter'

By Staff Correspondent

The Daily Star received more condolence messages yesterday from different organisations following the untimely death of its Founder-Editor S. M. Ali.

The messages expressed profound shock at his demise and said that the country and the neighbouring regions had lost a shining star of journal-

Rangs Group Of

Companies

Managing Director of the Rangs Group of Companies A Rouf Chowdhury on behalf of his wife Khushi, children and the Rangs Group in a message expressed their heartfelt sympathy and condolence at the untimely demise of Ali.

Rouf said, we in the Mediaworld mourn the passing away of a friend, a philosopher and above all an architect whose single tireless contribution has established The Daily Star as a trend-setter in journalism of Bangladesh.

"In the passing away of Ali Bhai, Rouf added, we mourn the loss of an intellectual whose thoughts and ideas were down to earth real and therefore refreshingly simple, practical and creative".

USIS

Director of the United States Information Service (USIS) J Michael Korff-Rodrigues condoling the death said, S. M. Ali's extraordinary contributions to the profession of journalism earned him a place in the heart of the people throughout the newspaper world.

"Those of us in the information business were deeply appreciative of the man and his role in propagating the truth and clear-headed thinking and cogent writing", the message said, expressing deep shock on behalf of the USIS, Michael said "we did not always agree with the commentaries and editorials and editorial-direction which Ali laid out for the Star", and added, "we were after all, coming from different worlds and different perspectives."

"But we deeply respected Ali and valued his criticisms as well as his support. We aren't always right and I don't think he would have argued that he was always right", Michael said. S. M. Ali was the kind of person with whom one could discuss different perspective in a rational manner, observed the USIS director.

> the example set by Ali would help the journalist community perform their duties generously.

Rahman.

Banque Indosuez

The Country Manager of Banque Indosuez J P Raynaud said Ali's illustrious career shines like a beacon for the future generations. In his demise, he added, Bangladesh has lost an outstanding journalist and a most distinguished personality.

BNAJ

Bangladesh National Association of Journalist (BNAJ) expressed profound shocks and sorrows at the untimely demise of the doyen of journalism, S. M. Ali.
