Kagoj editor expresses concern over Jamaat activities

Editor of the Akker Kagoj Kazi Shahed Ahmed Monday expressed deep concern over continuous litigious and physical assault by Jamaat-Shibir on his newspaper and newsmen, reports UNB.

At a press conference at the Jatiya Press Club in the morning, he said 16 cases had been filed by Jamaat against the Kagoj in different district courts on the same charge — defamation.

The court summoned the accused in three cases, two cases were dismissed, and the rest are under enquiry, the editor told newsmen.

Jamaat-Shibir filed cases against the cartoonist, reporters and the editor of the Bengali daily in different district courts and the language of the cases is all most same in all places, he said.

Kazi Shahed said "this anti-liberation force" was trying to harass the Kagoj in various ways, including filing cases and direct attack on the newspaper and journalists.

"This is not an attack on the newspaper only, this is an attack on the freedom of press and speech," he added.

He urged all concerned to resist the anti-liberation forces immediately, otherwise it would be difficult to resist them in future.
