Fish fossil handed over to CU

CHITTAGONG, Nov 3: Khan daker Niaz Rahman, Assistan Chief Town Planner of Chittagoing Development Authority (CDA) Wednesdayhanded over fish jossil to the Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University for the preservation of the same at the University Museum, reports

Noted historian and former Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University Prof Abdul Karim, prof M Badiul Alam, pro Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University, and some teachers and the Registrar of the university were present on the occasion. held at a simple ceremony at the vice-chancellor's chamber.

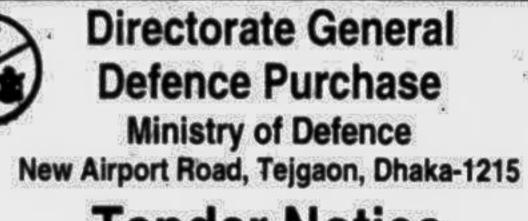

Handing over the fish fossil Niaz Rahman said that this fossil was of Neogenic age and it was found at a hill near the shrine of Baizid Bostami on September 11. He urged the Chittagong University authority for research on this fossil. Prof Abdul Karim, in his speech, said that this fossil would unfold many unknown things of our history. In this connection, he hoped that the University of Chittagong would try to open a department on Archaeology and this would help us in finding the ancient history of ours.

Vice-Chancellor of Chittagong University Prof R Chowdhury said our history and our past were full of many valuable things which need careful research.

By JU Correspondent

The Jahangirnagar Universi ty Teachers' Association (JUTA). in a statement yesterday, accused the police of siding with the

The JUTA alleged that the police had deliberately left some lacunae in the statements of the witnesses with the aim to provide scope to the terrorists to extricate themselves from the charges levelled against them.

The JU authorities lodged cases against 21 students with Savar Police under the Anti-Terrorism Act for their alleged involvement in the campus violence of July 29 that left scores of teachers and students injured.

Khandaker Mustahidur Rahman and general secretary Prof Sharif Enamul Kabir, said that the loopholes in the recorded statements of the witnesses are only an attempt to free the terrorists.
