Call for strong journalists'

Fifty-six members of the Dhaka Union of Journalists (DUJ) in a joint statement Friday said that the virtual absence of a strong journalists union has put the working journalists in a state of help-getting their emoluments regularly, many don't have any job security while many ad-hoc and 'contract' appointments are being made bypassing Wage Board regulations, the statement said

The statement also said that government controlled newspapers appear to be a sort of impediment in the free flourishing of democracy and freedom of press and as such, according to the signatories, there must not be any government controlled newspaper for the very interest of democracy and freedom of press. And to face the state of affairs there must be a strong journalists' union, the statement added.

The signatories are, among others, Maulana Abdul Awal, Sohrab Hasan, Rashid Talukder, Fazlur Rahman, Sarmin Aktar Moli, Alauddin Ahmed and Mahfuzul Haq Khan.
