Commitment

Works Minister Barrister Rafiqui Islam Mia said that environmental pollution could be controlled through concerted efforts of journalists, intellectuals and environment scientists.

The minister was addressing as chief guest at the prize giving ceremony of environment reporting competition at a local hotel yesterday evening. Commitment, a national voluntary organisation arranged the function.

Presided over by president of the organisation Abul Kalam Azad, it was also addressed by former Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof Abdul Mannan, Dr Imamul Haq of Dhaka University and journalist Igbal Sobhan Chowdhury.

'Some parties hatching intrigue to jeopardise process of democracy'

Energy and Mineral Resources Minister Dr Khandaker Mosharraf Hossain called upon the people to remain alert against any conspiracy to foil the process of democracy, reports

Some political parties in collaboration with fallen autocracy have been hatching an intrigue to jeopardise present democratic process and parliamentary system of the country. he alleged.

Addressing as chief guest at a discussion organised by the Bangladesh Medical Association (BMA) on the third death anniversary of Shaheed Dr Shamsul Alam Khan Milon who was killed during the mass upsurge of 1990. He said that the people of the country had given their mandate to BNP to run the country for five years.

The people and only the people will elect their next government to run the country after completing the present term," the Energy Minister said adding. "No one can play ducks and drakes with the poeple's mandate." He said any move to destabilise the democratic government will be against the hopes and aspirations of the people.

Chaired by President of the BMA Dr MA Majed the meeting held at the premises of Dhaka Medical College Hospital was also addressed by Dr AKM Kamruzzaman, Prof lazuddin Ahmed, Barrister Istiak Ahmed Advocate Shamsul Hog Chowdhury, Abdul Mannan of Awami League, Kazi Aref Ahmed of JSD, Selina Akhter, mother of Dr Milon, and Dr Gazi Abdul Hoq. Secretary General of the Doctors Association of Bangladesh (DAB).

Paying tributes to the memory of Shaheed Dr Milon Dr Mosharraf said sacrifices of Milon and other martyrs will inspire us to consolidate democracy by resisting any evil design against parliamentary democracy, independence and sovereignty. He called upon the democratic and patriotic forces to forge unity to materialise the hopes and aspiration of the martyrs.

Works Minister Barrister Rafiqui Islam Mia said that Shaheed Dr Milon would be honoured if we materialise the dream for which he had sacrificed his life.

He was addressing the engineers of PWD at the Purta Bhaban in the capital yesterday morning.

Presided over by chief engineer, PWD the "Annual Development Projects Review Conference" was addressed among others, by Dr Mohammad Abdur Rashid, Secretary, Ministry of Works and the concerned engineers

Referring to the sacrifices of Dr Milon, the minister said that after a nine-year-struggle against the former autocratic rule. the present government was empowered through a meaningful and impartial elections. He criticised the negative attitude of some political parties and said that hard-earned democracy could not be destroyed by the politicians who wanted voterless election again.
