Family Planning Fortnight '93 begins today

The Family Planning Fortnight '93 begins throughout the country today with the objective of giving a momentum to the national family planning programmes, reports UNB.

The fortnight is being observed to activate the family planning programmes based on health care of mothers and children, develop the quality of services and make those available at field levels and ensure wide participation of the people in the programmes.

President Abdur Rahman Biswas in a message on the occasion stressed the need for limiting population to a tolerable level for the development of human resources.

He called upon all irrespective of party affiliation to come forward for challenging the population problem which is now a major national problem.

Different organisations, including the Health and Family Welfare Ministry and Family Planning Department, have planned elaborate programmes to observe the fortnight, the highlights of which will be a series of seminars at national and local levels.

The main programmes include a national seminar at the International Conference Centre in Dhaka on December 8, seminar on "Population and Development" involving parliament members at the Osmani Smriti Auditorium on December 11 and seminar on "Joint Efforts of Government and Private Organisations in Family Planning" in Chittagong on December 15.

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia will inaugurate all the three seminars, ostensibly underlining the importance of national family planning campaign.

Besides, ministers and parliament members will take part in meetings in their respective areas on December 9 to motivate people in family planning.

Special seminars have also been organised at divisional level on the occasion.

Deputy Leader of the House AQM Badruddoza Chowdhury is scheduled to inaugurate a seminar on "Concerted Efforts in Giving Better Services" in Barisal on December 13.

Speaker Shaikh Razzak Ali will inaugurate another seminar on "People's Participation in Family Planning Based on Health Care of Mother and Child" in Khulna on December 18.

On the last day of the fortnight on December 20, another seminar on "Future Directions of Family Planning Programmes Based on Health Care of Mother and Child" will be held in Rajshahi. President Abdur Rahman Biswas will inaugurate the seminar.

Radio Bangladesh and Bangladesh Television will put up special programmes on the occasion.

Effective distribution system of fertilizer suggested

Agriculture, Irrigation, Water Development and Flood Control Minister Major General (Rtd) M Majid-ul-Haq suggested the importers and distributors of fertilizer to prepare an effective and sustainable distribution system, reports BSS.

He was addressing the inaugural session of a workshop on "Fertilizer Importation" organised by the Ministry of Agriculture and International Fertilizer Development Centre (IFDC) at a hotel in the capital yesterday.

The function was also addressed by Dr Richard M. Brown, Mission Director USAID in Dhaka, Kevin J. Mullity, Director of OFA, USAID, Dhaka, Jhon H. Allgood, chief of party of IFDC Dhaka and MA Malek, Import and Marketing Development Adviser of IFDC, Dhaka.

About 100 fertilizer importers, distributors, bankers and concerned government officials participated in the day-long workshop.

Describing the unorganised system of fertilizer distribution and marketing in the past, the minister said that the present government had been successful to organise the farmers and farm leaders and train them regarding the application of modern technology to enhance agriculture production.

The minister said under the present government subsidy from the fertilizer sector was completely eliminated and the entire responsibility of import of fertilizer was entrusted with private sector.

Training programme for youths

RAJSHAHI, Dec 5: The Youth Development Department has undertaken a programme to provide training to 494 youths of Rajshahi, Natore and Naogaon districts in the current fiscal year to make the youths self-reliant, reports BSS.

The training is being provided on different trades like cattle and poultry farming, pisciculture, sewing, steno typing and small scale business.

The department is also providing support to 350 trained youths in running their self employment projects in the districts.

Disabled persons should have equal rights: Mannan

Labour and Manpower Minister Abdul Mannan Bhuiyan yesterday stressed the need for providing support for the disabled to bring them in the mainstream of the society, reports UNB.

"It is our responsibility to support and promote the issues of disability in our society with whatever resources are available to us", he said while inaugurating a workshop for the disabled people at a local hotel.

"Disabled persons should have equal rights, like their fellow citizens and must have access to the existing opportunities and privileges", he said.

The ESCAP South Asian workshop on Management of Self Help Organisations of People with Disabilities was also addressed by State Minister for Social Welfare Fazlur Rahman, Secretary of the Ministry KM Fariduddin, ILO representative Warner K Blenk, ESCAP representative San Yuen Wah and Project Expert of Disability Yutaka Takamine.

Organised by ESCAP, ILO and the Social Welfare Ministry, the 10-day workshop is being participated by representatives of eight countries: Bhutan, India, Nepal, the Maldives, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Iran and Bangladesh.

The Labour Minister pointed out that Bangladesh is one of the signatories of UN Declaration of the children's rights and the Prime Minister has also signed the Beijing Declaration for full participation of people with disabilities and their equalities.

The constitution of Bangladesh has recognised basic rights of the disabled including children, he added.

Mannan said the government is trying to do everything possible to improve the situation of people with disabilities and bring them in the mainstream of the society.

Land and buildings have been provided to Bangladesh Federation for Deaf and National Institute for Mentally Retarded. The government has also provided land for the Centre for Rehabilitation of Paralyzed, he said.

Besides government efforts, the NGOs are playing a commendable role in enhancing access of the disabled people to education, training and rehabilitation programmes, he said.

"As a result, sufficient awareness have been created", Mannan said, adding, "It is time to develop a national plan of action and formulate policies for achieving the goals of participation and equalisation of opportunities."
