Bidyut Sramik Union threatens strike from Jan 3

Bangladesh Jatiya Bidyut Sramik Karmachari Union will enforce a non-stop strike in the power sector from January 3, if 16-point demand of the CBA is not met, reports UNB.

The union, affiliated to the labour wing of the ruling BNP, held a meeting of workers and employees from Dhaka, Siddhirganj, Ghorasal and Ashuganj power stations at the WAPDA Bhawan yesterday in support of the proposed strike.

A press release said the decision was taken through voting on November 17 according to Section 28 of the Labour Law. It said 93 per cent of the workers voted in favour of the strike.

The meeting, presided over by Kazi Habibur Rahman, said the union was being compelled to go for the all-out strike because their demands had long been neglected.
