Training academy for judicial officials soon

Steps were underway to set up a training academy for judicial officials so as to raise their professional efficiency and wisdom, reports BSS.

This was disclosed by Minister for Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Mirza Golam Hafiz while addressing the officials of the concerned ministry and subordinate departments under this ministry here at its conference room yesterday.

Almost all the officials of the Law Ministry are from the judicial service.

The Law Minister called upon the officials to help sustain traditional sanctity, image and superiority of the Ministry of Law and Justice by expediting disposal of pending matters smoothly and above all, by keeping all their activities secret and confidential by all possible means.

He expressed his satisfaction over the disposal of two lakh twenty three thousand pending cases of different courts during the last three years time of the government.

He urged the officials to work with more discipline, dedication, sincerity and zeal for ensuring accountability for their activities under the government which was, in turn, accountable to the people.

Mirza Hafiz also directed the registration authority to gear up and multiply revenue collection by curbing the present trend of under-valuation of land at times of registration at any cost. He was assured by the concerned officials that revenue collection from registration sector was expected to be double in the present financial year.

Mirza Asaduzzaman Al-Faruk and Md Habibullah Secretary and Additional Secretary respectively of the concerned ministry were present in the meeting.

AHML confce begins Jan 15

By Staff Correspondent

The Sixth Congress of the Asian Homeopathic Medical League (AHML) will begin in the city on January 15.

The congress which will end on January 18 will be attended by two to three hundred homeopathic doctors from home and abroad.

In a press conference yesterday, president of Bangladesh Homeopathic Chikitsak Samity and convenor of the congress preparatory committee Prof Dr Md Shahabuddin said the congress will discuss the role of homeopathic treatment in population control, its role in paediatrics, malnutrition, and old age related diseases.

He urged the governments of different nations to provide the same facilities given to the allopathic medical science to the homeopathic medical science.

He said that the homeopathic science could contribute a lot to the population control programme of the government as the doctors could motivate the target group very easily where the doctors were already very reliable and popular.

Bangladesh, Turkey news exchange programme to be strengthened: Huda

Information Minister Barrister Nazmul Huda yesterday said the news and information exchange programme between Bangladesh and Turkey will be strengthened in the coming days, reports BSS.

Talking to the Turkish Ambassador in Bangladesh Kutlu Ozguven, who called on him at his office here, the minister said Turkey is one of the developed countries in the Muslim world and its brotherly relationship with Bangladesh was tied up from the historical background.

Huda pointed out to the media policy, particularly governments' initiative for free flow of information and projection of public and opinion ensuring freedom of the press in Bangladesh.

The Turkish Ambassador appreciated the government efforts for the overall development of Bangladesh and hoped that the democratic process of the country will get a strong footing through expansion of internal trading, rapid industrialisation, promotion of export trading and economic growth.
