Three killed, one commits suicide

Three persons were killed, one reportedly committed suicide and another two were injured in separate incidents in the city Tuesday.

A young girl reportedly committed suicide at her Pallabi residence in the morning. Suraiya Begum Lovely, 16, daughter of Mohammad Saifur Hossain, allegedly took her own life by taking poison.

A pedestrian, Jayatunnessa, 45, was crushed under the wheels of a speeding bus at Rayerbagh on the Dhaka-Chittagong highway at about 9:30 am.

In another road mishap, an unknown cyclist, about 40, was killed on the spot when a minibus knocked him down at about 6:30.

Police sent all the bodies to the DMCH morgue for autopsy. One Mohammad Abdus Salam received bullet injuries when some unidentified persons shot at him at Chankharpool at about 3 pm.

The victim was hit by bullets on his chest. He was admitted to the DMCH but later shifted to the Chest Diseases Hospital at Mohakhali in critical condition.

The victim's relatives alleged that Salam was coming from his residence at Jatrabari. When he came to Chankharpool suddenly some unidentified persons shot at him and fled. Salam returned from Italy only yesterday.

One Mohammad Imam Uddin, 30, was stabbed at Rampura at four in the afternoon. Imam alleged that one Maola — a manpower recruiting agent — had taken Tk 2.4 lakh from him on the promise of sending him to the USA, but had failed to arrange his visa.

Yesterday, when Imam demanded his money back, he was severely beaten up and stabbed by Maola and his associates.
