Shiv Sena threatens indefinite strike

Delhi plans separate army to deal with insurgency

COLOMBO, Jan 15: A mas sive joint army-police search operation has been launched in Kalpitiya area in North Western province of Shri Lanka to round up Tamil rebel cadres who may have infiltrated and sought refuge in the area, reports Xinhua.

This follows the recent attacks by the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eefam (LTTE) on the Sinhalese fishing hamlets of Lugankulama and Kalpitiya in the north of the island. according to local press reports today.

Shri Lankan security officials have received information that the LTTE from Mannar in the north is in the habit of coming to Kalpitiya area by boat, the reports said.

Shri Lankan navy patrols accordingly have also been strengthened in these regions. All traffic entering and leaving these areas are being searched by the police.

said, AFP reports from New York.

according to one of his advisers.

reports from Tunis.

vomiting and deafness.

Home Ministry sources.

hashish respectively from a hospital.

ministry said without giving any names.

Xinhua reports from Santa Fe De Bogota.

per cent muskets and 2 per cent rifles.

Elizabeth Taylor ill:

Kathmandu.

the funeral.

The police have also appealed to the fishermen to report any movements of little rebel boats, the reports said, adding that residents in these areas have been warned not to give accommodation to any strangers.

to deal with insurgency in the north-east states, well informed Yemeni tribesmen sources said here yesterday, reports Xinhuà. free 2 hostages The sources said that a spe-

SAN'A, Yemen, Jan, 15: A Briton and Canadian held hostage by tribesmen in the north Yemen for 12 days were released Friday, the general manager of the Yemen-Hunt Oil Co said, reports AP.

with their helicopter at around

3 pm (1200 GMT).

Abdel-Rahman hospitalised:

Sheikh Omar Abdel-Rahman, charged with plotting a series of terrorists attacks, including the bombing of the World Trade

Centre, was hospitalised Friday for chest pains, hospital officials four hours before returning to jail where he is being held which could be related to his high blood pressure or diabetes,

PLO to talk with Catholic leaders:

A three-man delegation from the Palestine Liberation

Organisation (PLO) is to hold talks with Roman Catholic leaders at the Vatican on Sunday, an informed source said Friday, AFP

The object and duration of the talks was not disclosed. The Vatican signed an historic agreement with Israel last month in a 5 children die in Vietnam: Five children died and another 150 people were taken ill after eating the flesh of a mystery sea creature caught by a Vietnamese villager in the Northern province of Quang Binh, the trade union

The creature, weighing around 40 kilos looked like a sea tur-

Soon after eating their meal the villagers suffered headaches.

5 held with hashish in Nepal:

Nepalese policemen have seized a total of 85 kg of hashish and arrested 5 members of a drug gang. Xinhua reports from

The drug gang were exposed after 3 Nepalese citizens were arrested at the Tribhuvan international airport along with 358 capsules of hashish when they were heading for Hong Kong by the Royal Nepali Airliner, local press reported yesterday quoting

The authorities later seized 126,100 and 132 capsules of Holst to be buried on Jan 22:

Norway's Foreign Minister Johan Joergen Holst, who died after suffering a stroke in Thursday, will be buried on January 22,

Political leaders from several countries will be present, the

The PLO representative in Norway, Omar Kitmitto, confirmed that PLO, Chairman Yasser Arafat will come to Oslo to attend

Huge arms seized in Bogota: The Bogota metropolitan police confiscated 4,471 firearms, most of them unlicensed, during its 1993 disarmament campaign,

Of the arms seized, 60 per cent were 38 and 32 caliber revolvers, 25 per cent were 7.5 and 22 pistols. 5 per cent were 16 caliber shotguns, another 5 per cent semiautomatic weapons. 3

Mobuto to name PM tomorrow:

Zaire's President Mobutu Sese Seko announced on Friday that a new parliament would convene on Monday and that he would name a Prime Minister to end to a year of political deadlock in reformist High Council of the Republic (HCR) would merge with the pro-Mobutu national assembly in a combined body which would elect a premier to replace incumbent Faustin Birindwa.

In a speech broadcast on state television, Mobutu said the Taylor was admitted to a hospital Friday for treatment of a dislocated hip, the result of slipping in the snow during a recent vacation in Switzerland, her spokeswoman

Taylor's continued problem with her hip and, at the advice of her doctor, she entered the hospital for supervised treatment and tests," spokeswoman Chen

Taylor, 61, who has a long history of ill health, would stay in St John's hospital in the Los Angles suburb of Santa Monica.

Sam said it was not known how long

"A slip in the snow aggravated Miss said, Reuter reports from Los Angles.

the Central African country, Reuter reports from Kinshasa.

the Foreign Ministry said on Friday, AFP reports from Oslo.

paper Lao Dong reported yesterday. AFP reports from Hanoi.

tle with a flattened body and very hard shell, said the paper.

bid to bury centuries of enmity between Jews and Christians.

without bail until his September 18 conspiracy trial.

The Sheikh, 55, was examined at Bellevue Hospital for about

The Sheikh had complained of chest pains and swollen feet,

The decision was made following the stepping up of insur-George Slaughter said the gent activities in Manipur and two men 49-year-old Peter Jackson from Exeter, England, Nagaland and continued acts of and 43-year-old George lawlessness in Tripura. Hawkins from Vancouver, Observers in north-east feel Canada were released along matters.

that it was not enough to pump money to the local state governments, but New Delhi

NEW DELHI, Jan 15: India is to set up a separate armed force cial meeting attended by Home

Mihister Chavan and all chief ministers of the north-eastern states would be held in the northeastern city of Shillong on.

January 22 to discuss related should also monitor the spending of the money and set up a separate force to help coordinate in operations against the insurgent activities.

Manipur was put under president's rule on the last day of 1993 in the wake of continued Naga-Kuki clashes that have rocked the northeastern state for the last one year, resulting in 1,000 deaths.

The central government has been seriously concerned about the state of drift and virtual inaction of the state government in containing insurgency.

The north-eastern region has been in Turmoil for 40 years now, with at least four states -Assam, Manipur, Nagaland and Tripura - ridden with insurgency, and there is little sign of improvement in the foreseeable

As the economy in the region has been in shambles, stability for economic development there is in urgent need, the sources

AFP adds: An Indian university in the western state of Maharashtra was renamed on Friday after a leader of lowercaste Hindus following mass protests and two suicides, the Press Trust of India said.

The Marathwada University was renamed the Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University after the author of the Indian constitution and a leader of lower caste Hindus, the news agency said.

Socially oppressed Hindus. had stepped up a campaign in the past few months to rename the university, with two young activists setting themselves on Maharashtra Chief Minister Sharad Pawar announced the renaming of the university in Bombay which sparked immediate protests and violence by activists of the Hindu fundamentalist Shiv Sena (Shiva's army) party. Shiv Sena members torched two buses prompting widespread arrests, reports said. A senior party legislator warned of further violence and attacks and said an indefinite strike would be launched across the state.

The Shiv Sena believes in the structured social hierarchy set forth in ancient Hindu texts.

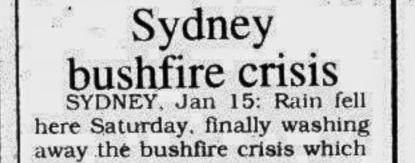

Rains wash away Sydney

Bushfire services commissioner Phil Koperberg said absence of new outbreaks have allowed crews to get on with the very difficult task of containment," he said.

"We're blessed with a pre-good weather, but Monday, however, it will be a bit more rugged and firefighters will be devastated much of New South Wales during the last fortnight. but fire authorities warned severe weather conditions could develop again as early as Monday, reports AFP.

while the emergency ended Friday, firefighters remained at the mercy of the weather to an "The last 72 hours in the diction of another 48 hours of on the ground for a few days yet. Four people died in the fires which were said by authorities to have been the worst in two centuries.

Leotard after their meeting at the Premier's house January 15. Leotard arrived in Islamabad for a two-day official visit and will hold talks with Pakistani official on bilateral - AFP photo.

Each nest held more than a dozen and up to 30 eggs.

Indonesian embassy in Kabul hit Pakistan's appeal for a cease-Pro-Rabbani forces recapbeen under siege for 15 KABUL, Jan 15: The tured the areas of Qala-i-Zaman straight days as rival factions negotiated settlement. and Deh Koidad Dhan from ri-

Indonesian embassy in Kabul was hit twice by heavy artillery fire today morning, but officials said there were no casualties. reports AFP.

A long-range 122-mm rocket blew a huge hole in the embassy's rear wall about 10 AM (0530 GMT) and was followed almost immediately by an artillery shell which exploded after hitting a perimeter wall in the front of the embassy compound.

The shock wave of the second explosion blew all the chancellery windoes in, showering the ambassador's temporary office with glass shards. but no one inside was hurt.

A car parked inside the compound had its petrol tank ruptured, spilling fuel over a wide area, but there was no

The Indonesian embassy is among the few foreign mission still open in Kabul, which has

LONDON, Jan 15: Prime Minister John Major has told

Britain's arms-for-lraq inquiry that he had no significant role in setting or adjusting guidelines on sales of defence-related equipment to Baghdad.

the Financial Times reported inquiry ahead of his appearance before Lord Justice Scott on Monday. Major emphasised that during his time as Finance

Minister and Foreign Minister

he was not party to relaxation

1992 to investigate whether British ministers knowingly broke guidelines governing

Major set up the inquiry in of rules, said the newspaper.

In written evidence to the on Saturday, says Reuter.

battle the Defence Ministry forces of president Burhanuddin Rabbani for control of the capital. Reuter from Pakistan adds:

Rival Afghan factions each claimed victories as bloody battles for power went into a third week today. Fighting between forces loyal to President Burhanuddin Rabbani and his opponents resumed in eastern Kabul after an overnight lull, with aerial attacks and shelling, a spokesman for the Hezb-i-Islami party said in neighbouring Pakistan.

The Hezb, headed by Prime Gulbuddin Minister Hekmatyar, who allied with northern Afghan warlord Abdul Rashid Dostum, who started the current round of fighting by launching a power grab in Kabul on New Year's day.

Arms-for-Iraq inquiry

Major denies significant role arms sales to Iraq before the prime minister has nothing to fear from the inquiry which is trying to discover whether the conservative government turned a blind eye as British firms helped build Iraq's war

Kenneth Clarke said on Thursday he would resign if the inquiry found he was at fault in signing key documents.

sion programme on British television if he would stand down if the Scott inquiry found fault with his action while he was Interior Minister, Clarke

Asked on a political discus-

Current Finance Minister

machine in the 1980s.

His aides maintain the 1991 Gulf War.

val forces on Friday, official Kabul Radio said. But the Hezb spokesman in the northwestern Pakistani town of Peshawar denied the report, saying his group's forces had advanced in the eastern suburbs and captured some government positions.

Government jets bombed rebel positions around Kabul, on Friday, two days after rebel jets dominated the skies over the capital.

Kabul Radio, quoting the Defence Ministry, said on Friday night that a large number of rebel militiamen were killed or injured in the attacks. Rebel forces fired shells and rockets into residential areas killing many people and causing extensive damage, it replied: "Of course I will."

of justice."

But he stressed: "I believe what I did was lawful. I believe what I did was in the interests

Trade secretary Michael

Heseltine on Friday joined agrowing queue of ministers saying they would resign if censured by the inquiry. "If I thought that anything I had done had brought unacceptable embarrassment to the gov-

Financial Times as saying

Major was "entirely convinced" the mass of government documents covering the guidelines confirmed his complete innocence of any misconduct.

Officials were quoted in the ernment I would resign."

Both sides have rejected fire from Friday to allow for a Pakistan on Tuesday shut its border at the Khyber pass, where more than 15,000 refugees had crossed since January 1 to escape battles estimated to have killed hundreds of people. Between 1,000 and 1,500 people waiting for the opening of the border had returned to the eastern Afghan town of Jalalabad, aid workers said.

At least 50,000 people from Kabul have flocked to Jalalabad midway between Kabul and Pakistan since January 1, according to UN officials.

More than 10,000 people have been killed in battles for power in Kabul since April 1992 when the Mujahideen guerilla parties overthrew a formerly Soviet-backed government after 14 years of civil

ROK opposition leader's wisit

Reuler.
If Lee Ki-Taek, chairman of Workers' (communist) Party. Lee said last Wednesday he was willing to visit North

DPRK to welcome

North Korea said today it would welcome a visit by the head of South Korea's main opposition party, reports the South Korean Democratic Party., visits Prongyang, we will welcome him and openheartedly discuss with him important affairs of the nation," said Yang Hyong-Sop. alternate politburo member of the central committee of the

Korea for talks with President Kim Il-Sung to help resolve a bitter row over the horth's suspected nuclear arms programme nuclear missiles on its soil within seven years, would be accord. Clinton and Yeltsin agreed to order their respective armies, by no later than

May 30 of this year, to stop pointing nuclear missiles at

In addition to the Ukrainian implemented.

each other's cities.

farewell to each other Saturday morning at the end of a threeday visit to Russia by the US head of state, reports Reuter. Calling Clinton's stay an "unqualified success", Yeltsin told his guest he had had an opportunity to see for himself that Russia's "People want reform, the people want free-"We must be together on this small planet," Yeltsin said in his farewell remarks speech on Friday not to return to old-style expansionism because it would fail them again said he had been greatly impressed by Russia's "courage and vision" in undertaking free market reform.

Doctor forgot his own medicine

CAIRO: A plane carrying 229 passengers from Cairo to New and daughter. Chelsea, to go to Belarus for a brief visit.

He then headed for Vnukovo airport with his wife, Hillary,

Off the Record

'We must be together on this small planet" dom and democracy."

in the ornate St Gorge's hall at the Kremlin, watched by Russians in a television

Clinton, who appealed to Russian and US dignitaries.

MOSCOW: Presidents Boris Yeltsin and Bill Clinton bade

York turned around just 10 minutes after take-off when a doctor on board said he had forgotten his own medicine, reports Reuter. Officials at Cairo Airport said Kazem Farage needed to take injections every four hours for a kidney complaint and would not have survived the 12.hour journey. They said he had left his syringes in a bag belonging to his brother, who had been supposed to fly with him but had not been allowed on the flight The plane returned to Cairo, dropped Farage off, and took off again without him, they said.

176 dinosaur egg fossils unearthed

ZHENGZHOU: Chinese scientist have unearthed 176 pieces of dinosaur egg fossils in central China's Henan province, reports Xinhua. The remarkable find has given scientists more firsthand materials about dinosaurs, following months of intensive excavations. According to experts from the Henan provincial institute of cultural relics, the 176 eggs were unearthed in ten nests in an area of 260 square metres in Xixia county. Experts, supported by the Chinese academy of sciences and local governments, said that the dinosaur eggs were discovered in sedimentary rocks of the cretaceous period. With the dinosaur egg fossil, they said, there were also bits of eggshell.

Among the eggs one was smaller even than a chicken egg, measuring about 4.9 centimeters long and 2.9 centimeters in diameter. It is so far the smallest found in the area.

The unearthed dinosaur eggs were oblate shaped, with slightly flat top and bottom and in dark gray or light gray.

Threat to castrate 100 Americans

Lorena Bobbitt reacts to cheering supporters as she leaves the Prince William County Courthouse on Friday after the fourth day for her trial on charges she maliciously wounded her husband. The trial will resume January 18 after the Martin Luther King holiday weekend. - AFP photo

QUITO: Women's groups here threatened Friday to castrate 100. Americans if Ecuadoran-born Lorena Bobbit is convicted of cutting off her husband's penis in a widely publicised US trial, reports AFP.

A woman who identified herself as being with the Ecuadoran national feminist association telephoned AFP to say that they were awaiting the verdict before attacking Americans. She added that the group planned a rally for Monday to protest the trial of 24-year-old Lorena Bobbit who is accused of malicious wounding after slicing off her husband's penis. Lorena Bobbit has accused her husband of years of sexual abuse, claiming he raped her the night she attacked him. Mr Bobbit was acquitted of rape in that attack at an earlier court hearing. In Manassas, Virginia. Margaret McGary, an employee at the shop where Lorena Bobbitt worked as a manicurist, testifled that she heard Mr Bobbit make derogatory remarks about Lorena's Latin background. "I heard him call her stupid and related that to being Spanish," McGary said.

The men targeted will be American tourists and residents of Quito, said the group.

Lorena Bobbit's family emigrated from Ecuador to Venezuela when she was four, and from Venezuela to the United States when she was a teenager.

Ramos firm to reach pact with Muslims MANILA, Jan 15: President Fidel Ramos said he was determined to reach a pact with Muslim separatist rebels to end a war that has killed more than 50,000 people in the 1970s, reports Reuter.

"We are determined to finish the peace talks in a just and honourable way without bloodshed," Ramos told leaders and officials of southern Mindanao island in a meeting late on Friday

His remarks followed a row over bodyguards for Moro National Liberation Front (MNLF) leader Nur Misuari that threatened to disrupt the talks.

US-Russian ties enter a new stage of strategic partnership MOSCOW. Jan 15: The lations.

Presidents inked the accords. elinked their glasses and hailed their post-cold war friendship, but in two days of US-Russian summit talks they also achieved one thing that may have mattered above all: Maintaining the status quo. reports AFP.

been weightier.

But underneath the veneer of ritual importance accompa

And as Russia's new democratically elected parliament got off to a turbulent start on the sidelines of the summit. Clinton and Yeltsin seemed content to stick to a well tested script in wary anticipa tion of whatever may come next

"They noted with satisfac tion that the relationship between Russia and the United States has entered a new stage of mature strategic partnership. was how the final declaration signed by the presidents summed up their assessment of US-Russian ties.

But while the summit in many ways confirmed a holding pattern for the two countries, it also yielded several formal agreements - notably a trilateral nuclear disarmament treaty with Ukraine - that both sides hailed as historic. The arms deal, signed by volved complex transfers of missile material and dollars over the coming decade that seemed to offer something for everyone: Money for Russia, civilian nuclear fuel for Ukraine and weapons- grade But that accord, billed in

Uranium for the United States. large measure as the center-

For the first time in nearly half a century - virtually since the dawn of the nuclear age -Russia and the United States will not operate nuclear forces on a daily basis in a manner that presumes they are enealready been floated at several previous US Russian summits looked impressive on paper but even US officials admitted that, while nuclear "accidents can and do happen " it was mainly only of symbolic value. Both sides can in fact re target their missiles on each sought to stress the economic nature of the summit and agreements signed Friday contained numerous "statements of intent" to ease Russian trade access to US market and back Russia's full integration into the world economy Clinton also announced for helping Russia's sagging industry and predicted that Yelisin's continued commit ment to economic reform could imlock billions of dollars in international aid for

Wallach dies of cancer WARRENTON, Jan 15: Erica

Glaser Wallach, who evaded Nazis in Germany, fascists in Spain and a Soviet death sentence, has died of cancer, reports AP She was 71 At the height of the Cold War. Mrs Wallach spent five vears in Communist prisons on fabricated espionage charges. She was released in 1955 after the Soviets, without explanation, declared her innocent. Her life already is the subject of a documentary a play and an autobiography Her son, architect Robert S Wallach, said

Friday a second documentary about her life may answer some of the lingering questions about her ordeal

She was born in Schlawe Germany and left at age 14 with her family for Spain.

Sam said.

southern Philippines since the The issues addressed by Presidents Bill Clinton and Boris Yeltsin - nuclear disarmament, economic reform. security in Europe, stability in Russian and commerce in the world - could hardly have > nying any summit there lurked a sense that both leaders were at least as interested in not rocking the boat as they were in unveiling any stunning breakthroughs in bilateral re-

pledge jointly tain the weapons.

Clinton, Yeltsin and Ukrainian President Leonid Kravchuk was significant not only because it formalised pledge by Kiev to get rid of its nuclear weapons but because Moscow and Washington extracted that Both countries, ultimately for the same reasons, were loathe to see the emergence of -a new nuclear power in Europe and especially in Ukraine.

where political passings are running high and which can neither control for even main

In addition, the deal in

News Analysis

line lawmakers in Kiev who described Kravchuk's decision to sign it as "treason" and vowed to continue their fight to hang on to nuclear arms. US officials said they had 'no reason to doubt' that the treaty, calling for Ukraine to get rid of all 176 long range piece of Clinton's trip to Moscow, was clouded by hardmies, the final declaration stated The agreement, which had other's cities in a matter of minutes. Russian and US officials

new plans | not fresh cash