

Dhaka City Corpn polls in pictures

Rush of voters at a polling centre in the older part of the city yesterday.

— Star photo

Due to heavy rush, voters could not stand in queues at the Bangsal Government Primary School polling centre yesterday.

— Star photo

Arrangements were made by some candidates to take voters to polling centres free of cost yesterday.

— Star photo

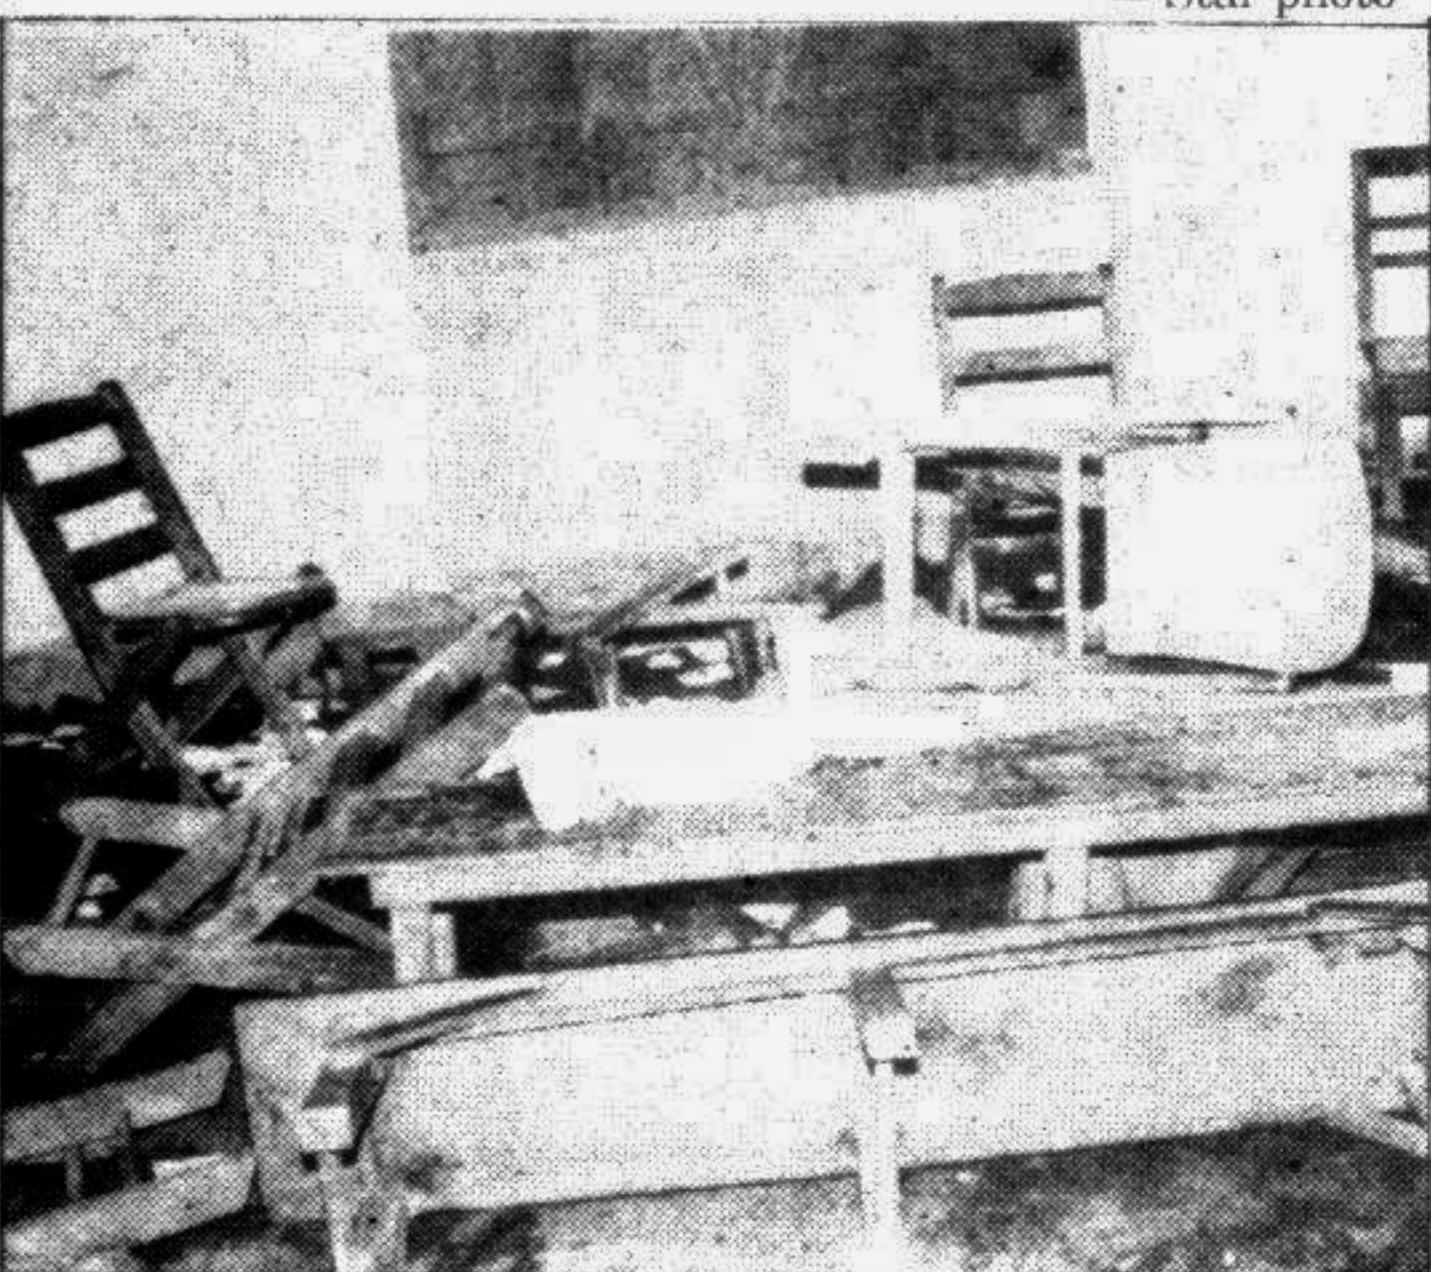

Some of the persons injured in attacks on polling centres 513 and 514 at Sahidnagar in Lalbagh yesterday.

— Star photo

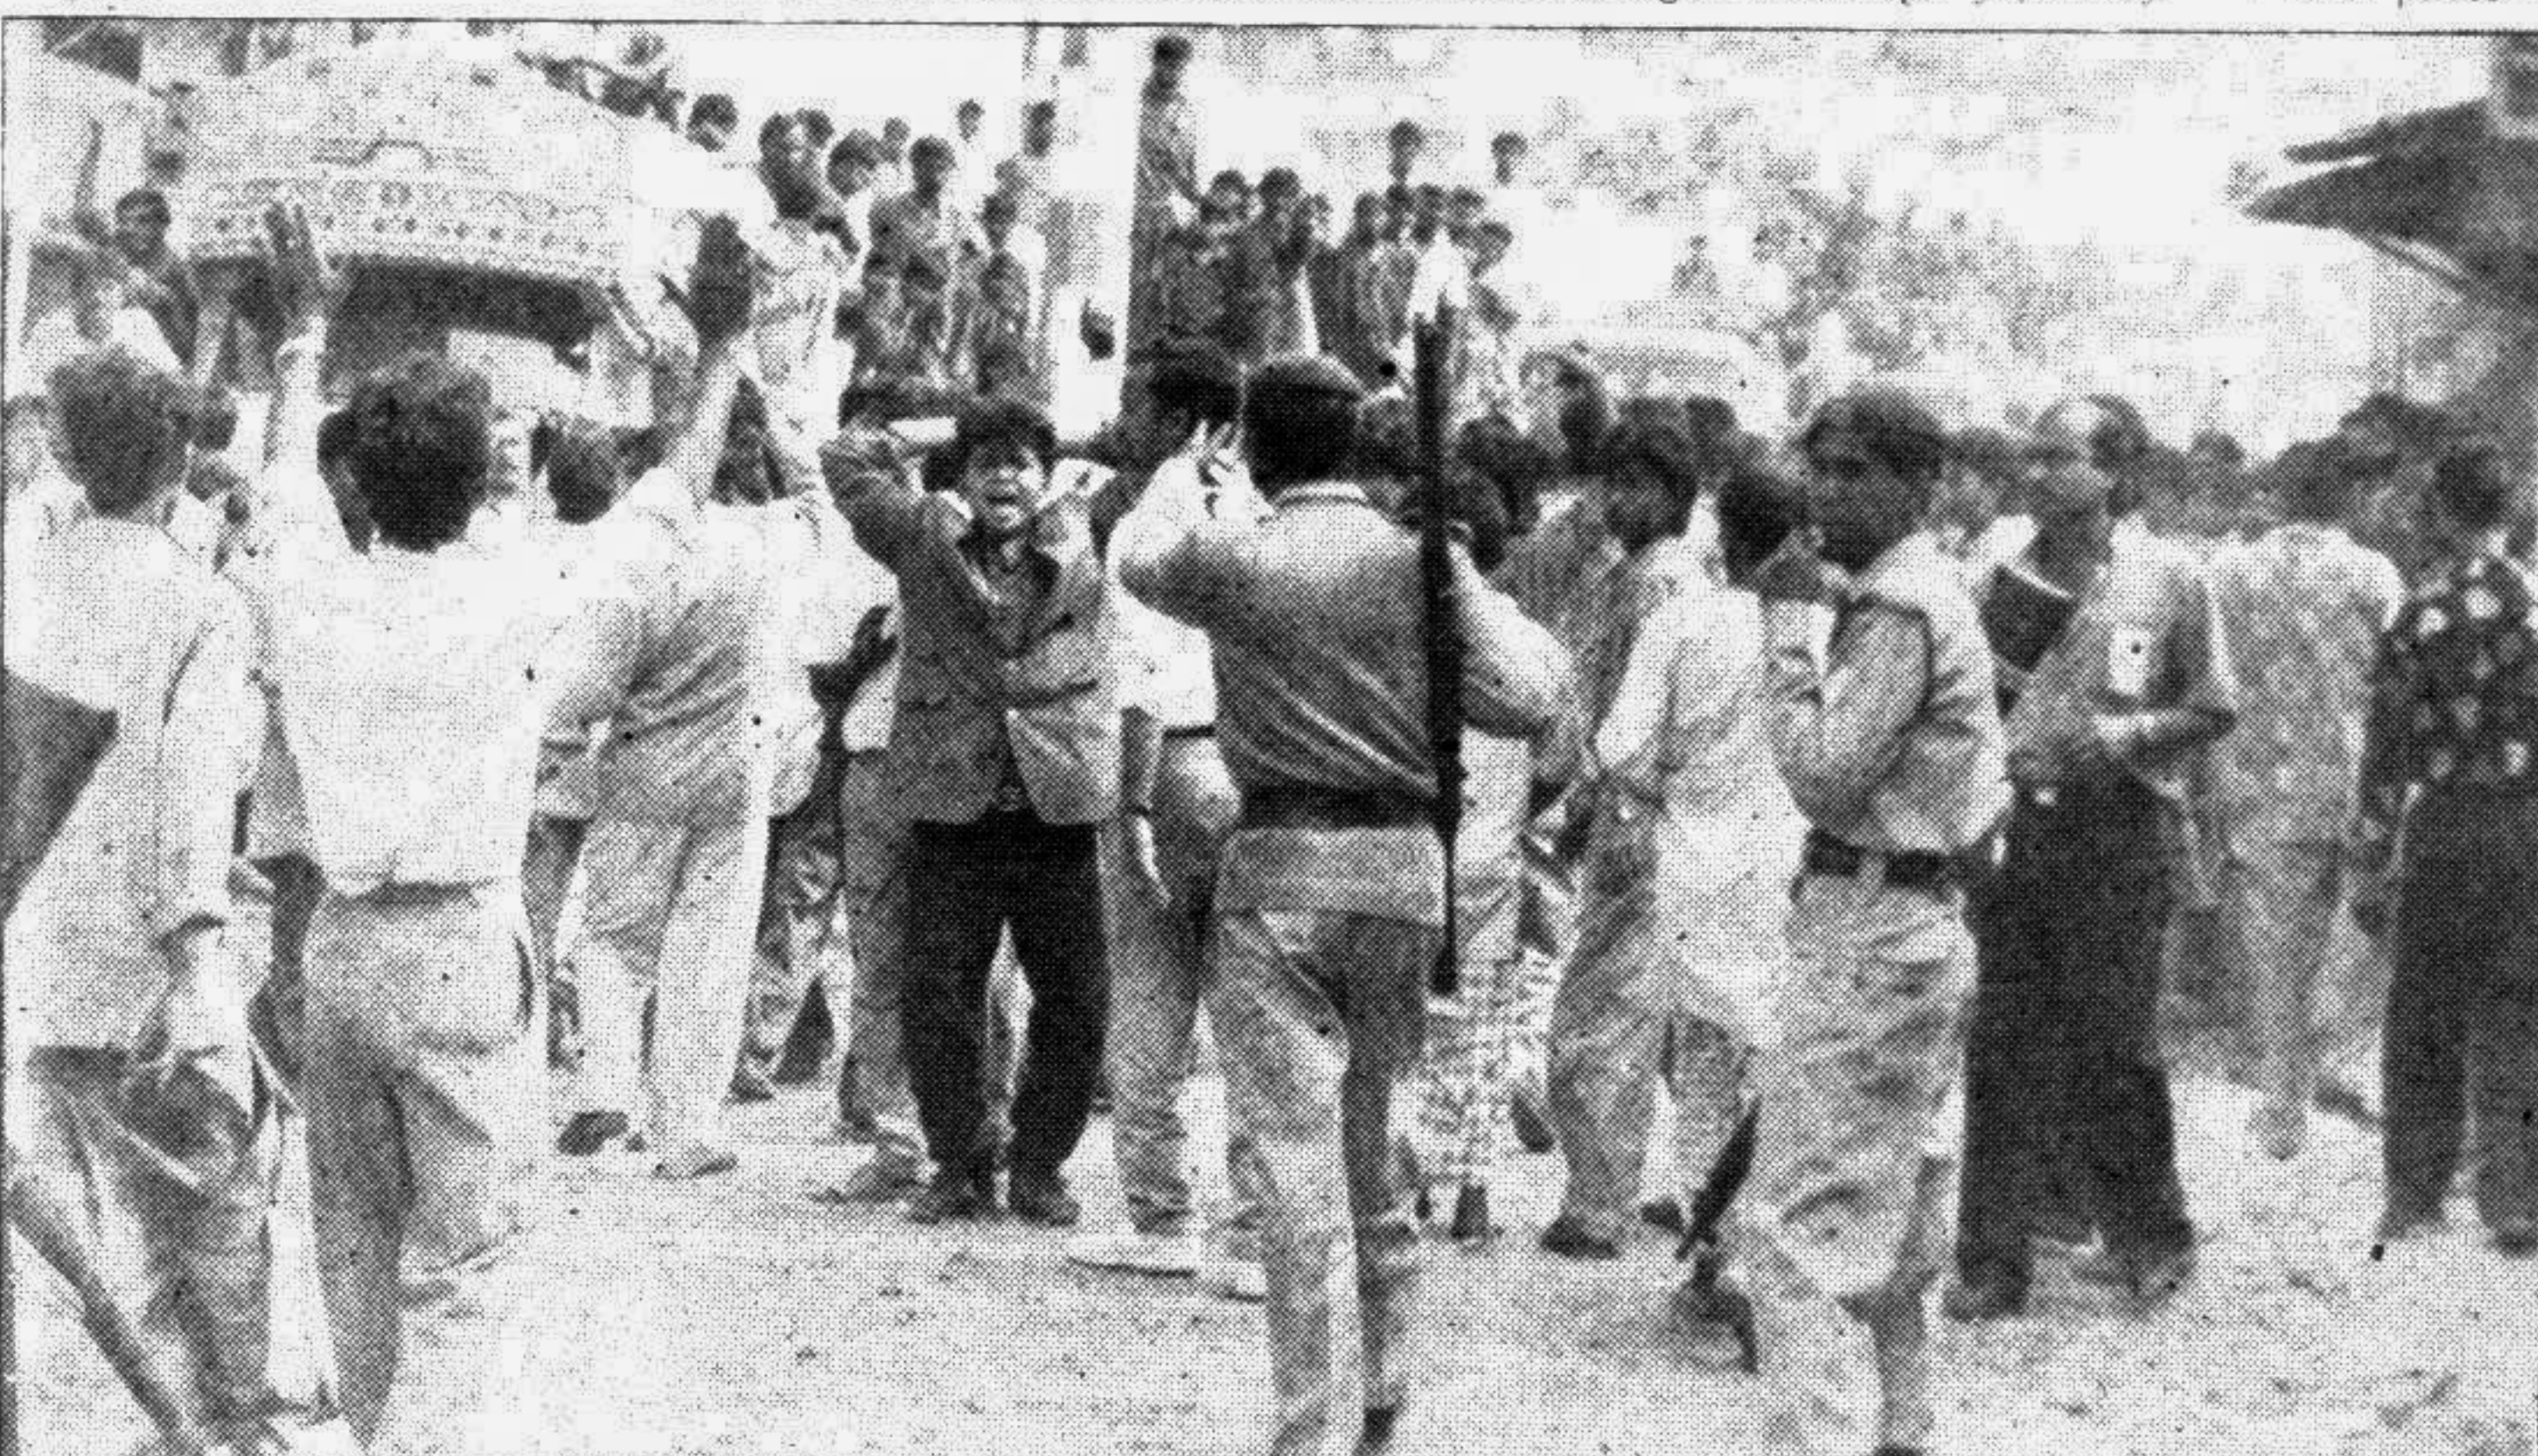

A disabled freedom fighter is being carried to the Khilgaon Primary School polling centre to enable him cast his vote yesterday.

— Star photo

The Anwar Hossain Primary School polling centre in Lalbagh was ransacked by a group of miscreants yesterday.

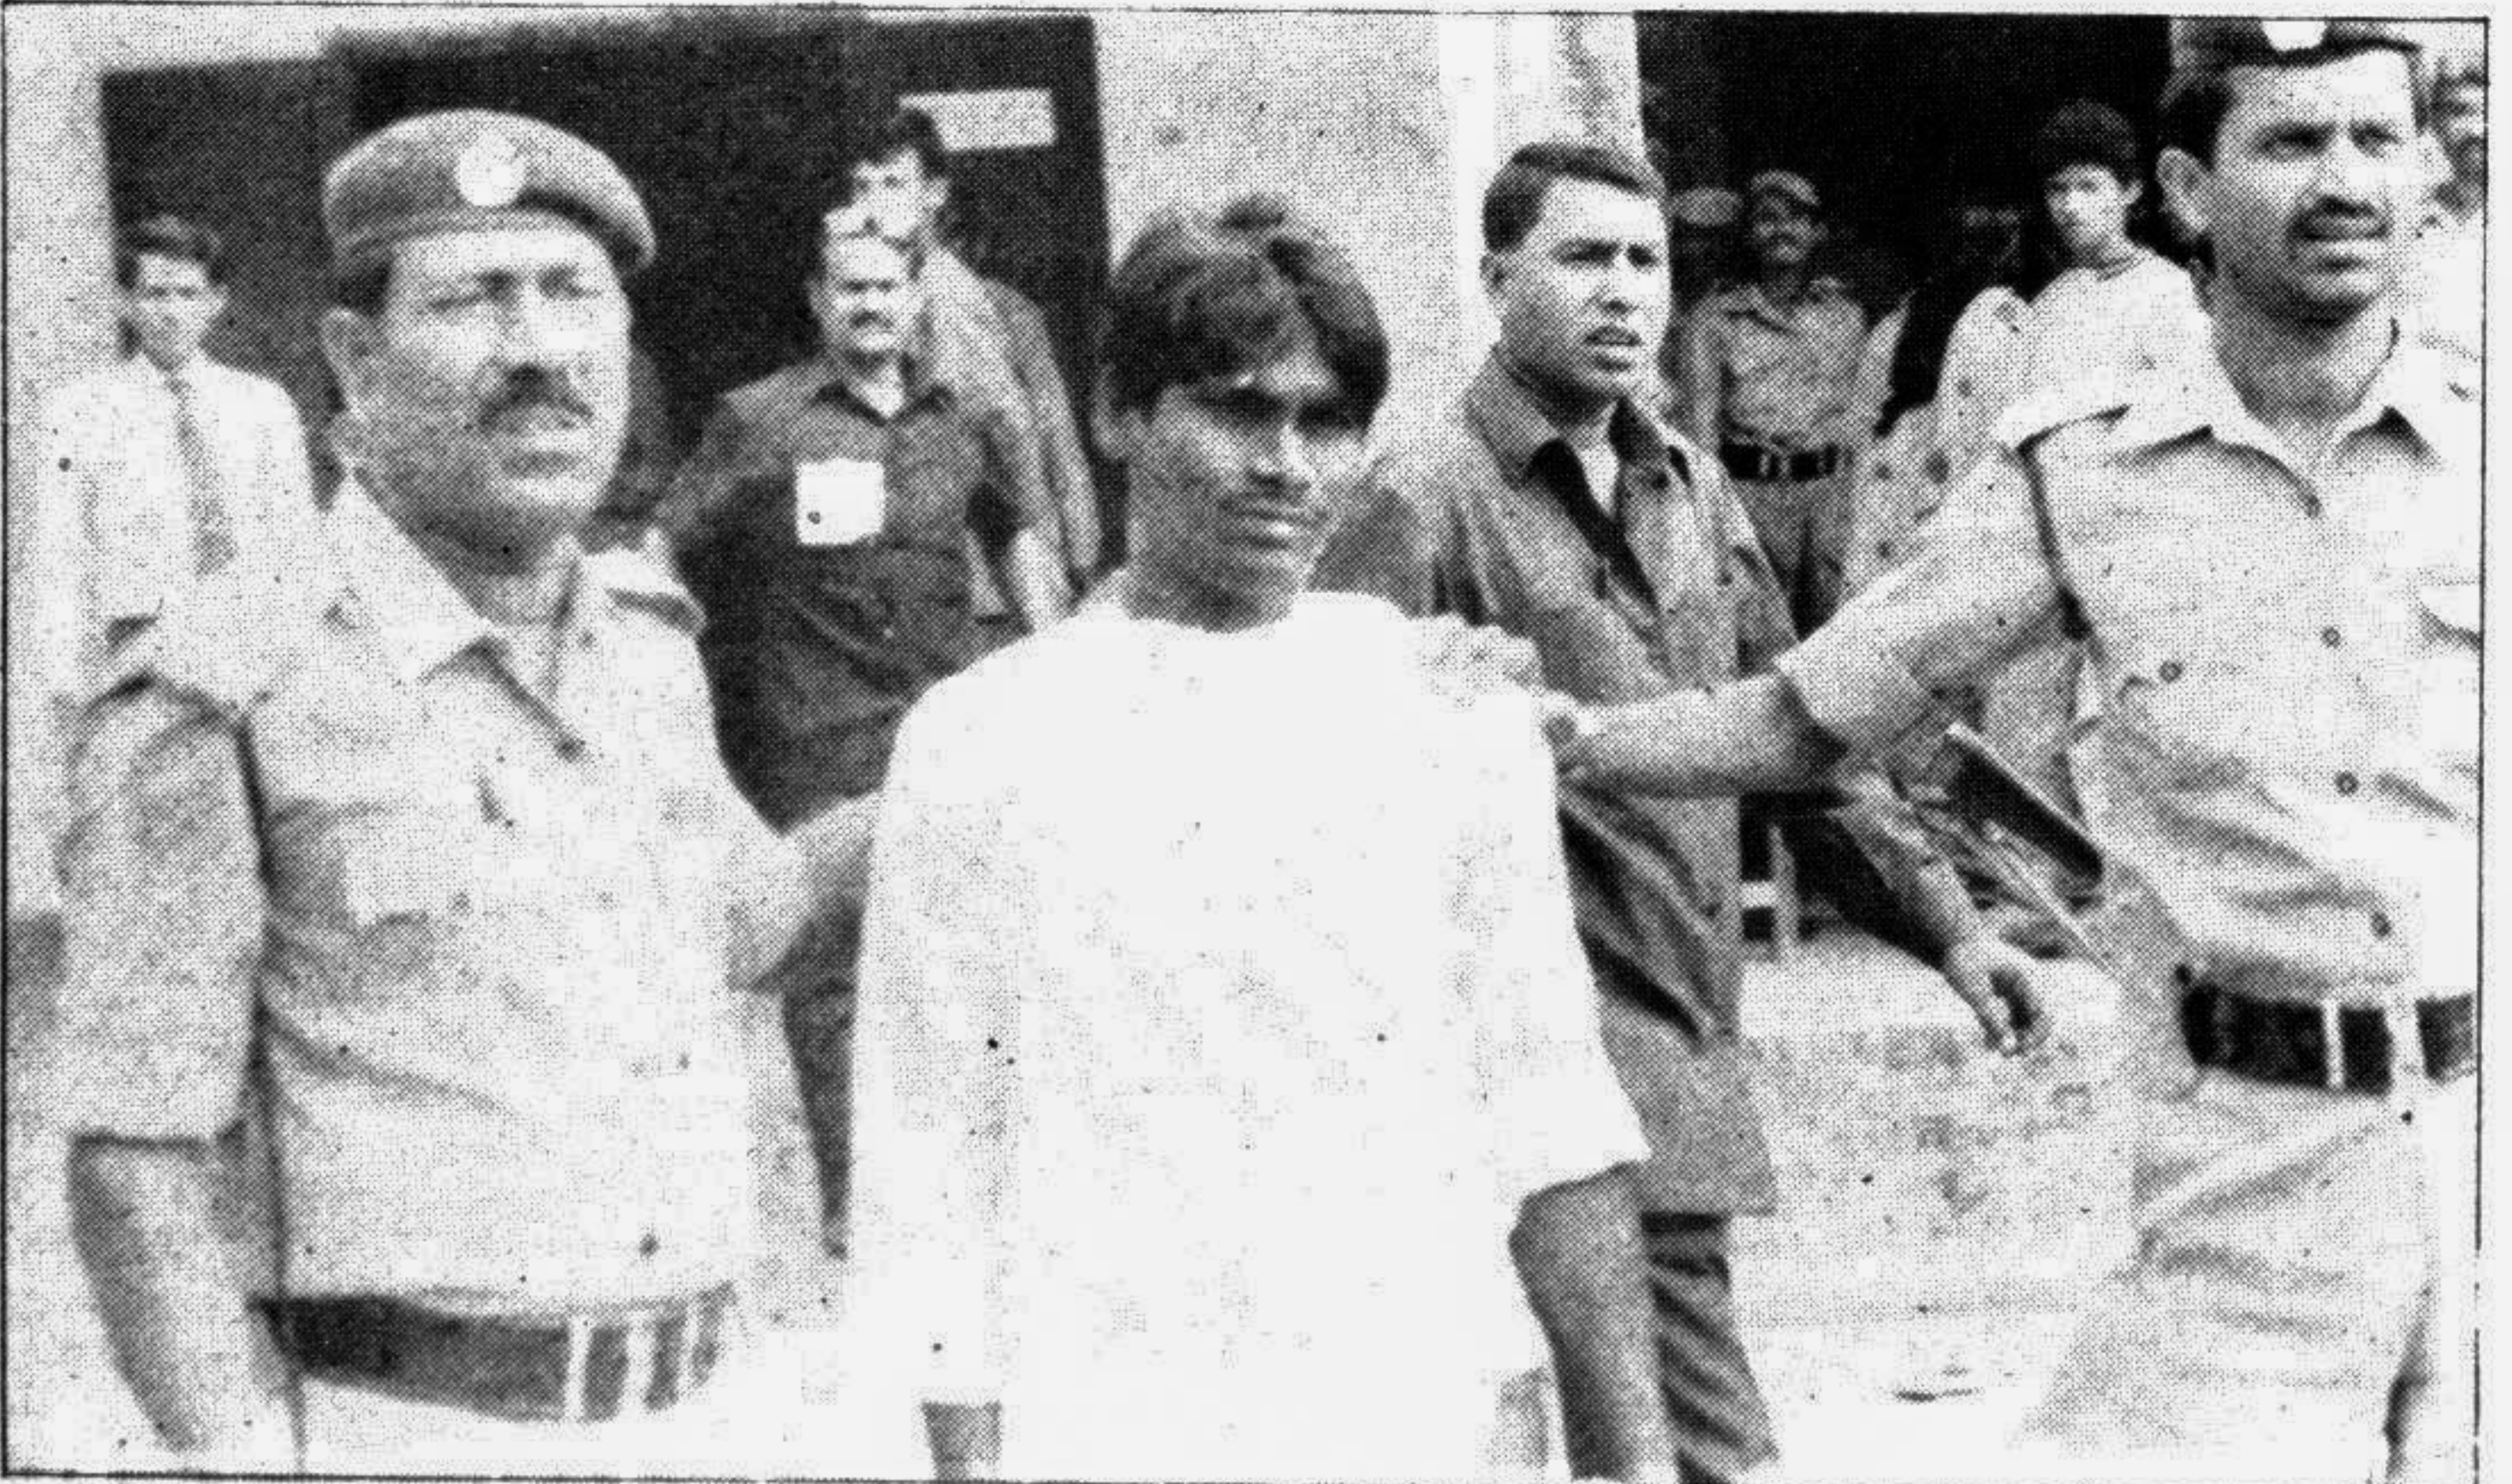

Voters agitating in front of a polling station at Mohammadpur area yesterday when they found the station taken over by a group of terrorists.

— Star photo

BDR was deployed at the Azimpur Girls High School polling centre after the voting had been postponed for violence there.

— Star photo

A false voter being apprehended by police at a centre in Mohammadpur yesterday.

— Star photo

The early rush of voters outside a city polling centre yesterday.

— Star photo