JUTA's call to reopen JU

By JU Correspondent

The Jahangirnagar University Teachers Association (JUTA) urged the authorities to reopen the university soon.

The call was made at a JUTA meeting held on the campus Sunday. The meeting chaired by the JUTA President Professor Abu Saeed Khan also asked to ensure the security of the students of the university.

The Syndicate on Friday night closed the university for an indefinite period following a campus violence triggered by two factions of the university unit of the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD).

The JUTA also asked the university teachers to attend the Finance Committee (FC) meeting and the Syndicate of the university in the greater interest of the university. However, the teachers' non-cooperation programme against acting Vice Chancellor Professor Abul Hossain will be continued.

Radio Bangladesh, BBC agreement signed

An agreement was signed between Bangladesh government and BBC in capital yesterday with a view to broad-casting the BBC programmes by Radio Bangladesh, reports BSS.

Additional Secretary of the Ministry of Information AKM Salamattullah and the Chief of Bengali Section of BBC World Service Peter Mangold signed the agreement, on behalf of Bangladesh government and the BBC respectively.

Information Minister Barrister Nazmul Huda, Information Secretary Nuruddin Al Masud and British High Commissioner to Bangladesh Peter J Fowler were present at the signing ceremony.

Under the agreement BBC World Service Radio programmes will be broadcast from May 1 by Radio Bangladesh from two-kilowatt FM transmitter at Shahbag and it will be heard within a radius of 25 miles of Dhaka. The agreement will expire on April 30, 1995 but it could be renewed with the consent of both the parties.

Initially the programmes would be broadcast from 6 am to 9:30 am and from 4 pm to 11:15 pm on an experimental basis to broadcast news in Bengali and English and other programmes in phases.

Speaking on the occasion, Barrister Huda said after a long effort the broadcast of BBC programmes have been extended to the listeners of Bangladesh. He said BBC had won the hearts of Bangladeshis by broadcasting objective news during the anti-autocracy movement.

The people of Bangladesh will now be able to listen BBC programmes clearly and easily he said. "This is another contribution of Begum Khaleda Zia's government to the services of the people," he added.

Barrister Nazmul Huda told Peter Mangold that the present government had ensured free flow of information and absolute freedom of the press, when the latter called on him earlier.
