Prof Badruddoza Chowdhury, Deputy Leader in

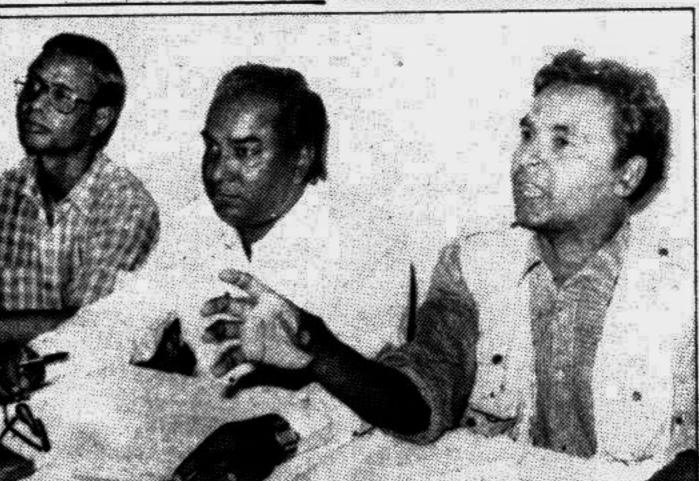

Journalists' Association (BPJA) yesterday urged the government to return the money and Member of the Parliament the interest it has paid for from Brahmanbaria-six ATM purchasing a house at 28 Wali Ashraf yesterday ex-Topkhana Road in the city for the association's office, reports pressed deep resentment at the murder of four persons in Char Dighaldi village located ence, president of BPJA Mohammad Salahuddin Ahmed said that the then government in a letter had asked BPJA to deposit Tk 6.40 lakh to purchase the building at 28 Topkhana Road in 1987. Accordingly BPJA deposited the money and took possession of the house.

But after depositing the money the association came to know that one non-Bangalee, who is not a citizen of the country, was the former owner of the house and was fighting a case against the government to get back the property. Salahuddin said.

negligence of the concerned officials, the government finally lost the case and now the government has issued an order to vacate the house to hand it over to its former

"Under this circumstances, the BPJA strongly urge the government to return the money BPJA had deposited with the government including the interests", the president of the association said.
