It's still pretty Fanny's way for England

Fraser fankles Windies

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados, Apr 10: West Indies are under pressure to avoid their first defeat at Kensington Oval since 1935 after Angus Fraser bowled England into a position of strength on the second day of the fourth Test on Saturday, reports Reuters.

Fraser took six for 47 in 21 overs in high-class seam bowling to reduce the West Indies to 188 for seven, 167 runs behind England's first innings total of 355.

In a dramatic reversal of previous form in the five-Test series, which West Indies lead 3-0, the home side had to struggle to avoid the follow-on a pitch less friendly to batsmen than it had been on the opening day.

Twelve wickets fell in three sessions after England had resumed on 299 for five, and West Indies had collapsed alarmingly to 134 for seven before Shivnarine Chanderpaul and Curtly Ambrose steadied the ship with an unbeaten eighth wicket stand of 54.

Fraser, whose England career has been seriously curtailed by injury in recent years, gained both life and movement to undermine the West Indian top order after Desmond Haynes had been forced to retire hurt with a finger injury.

Haynes, who needed stitches after being struck on the glove by a lifter from Chris Lewis on 35, returned after tea but was unable to add to his total before lofting a slower ball from Fraser to mid-off.

The Middlesex bowler had already removed Richie Richardson and Keith Arthurton in the same over, and also accounted for Jimmy Adams, Junior Murray and Winston Benjamin to slip catches.

Lewis, meanwhile, had struck a crucial blow with the dismissal of the exciting Brian Lara for 26.

The Trinidadian left-hander was beginning to look in excellent touch when he blazed at a wide delivery from Lewis and watched in horror as substitute fielder Nasser Hussain clung on to a fierce chance at extra-cover.

The West Indian predicament might have been even worse had Mike Atherton accepted a chance offered by Chanderpaul off Tufnell when the batsman was 27, but England could still look back with pride on a day which did not start well.

Ambrose struck twice in his first over to remove Graeme Hick and Chris Lewis, both caught behind by Junior Murray, and England's innings continued only 75 minutes before Jack Russell was last out for 38.

The relentless Ambrose, wicketless on the opening day, finished with figures of four for 86, but efforts were quickly overshadowed by the persevering Fraser.

Between the 1990-91 tour of Australia and the current series, a hip problem restricted Fraser to just one Test appearance and he had appeared to be struggling with his rhythm in the Caribbean.

All that changed after Richardson steered a catch to rival captain Mike Atherton at slip and when Haynes and Murray later departed in the same Fraser over it was the third time in the day the crowd had witnessed the feat.

"There was a bit of pace and bounce in the wicket," said Fraser, reflecting on his best Test figures. "We'd like to have got a couple more wickets tonight... hopefully we can do that quickly tomorrow."

Chanderpaul has so far batted for three and a quarter hours for his 31 runs, while Ambrose hung around with increasing conviction to be 35 not out at stumps.

Amid all the drama, both sides appeared to forget a bizarre pre-lunch incident involving Tufnell.

A drive from Haynes appeared to reach the boundary wall but Tufnell hurried the ball back and, with Haynes ambling in mid-pitch, the wicket was broken.

England players approached umpire Lloyd Barker and the incident threatened briefly to boil over. Barker, unable to call on TV replays which showed a four should have been awarded, eventually decided only the three completed runs should count and said he had called 'over' before the balls came off.

Sylhet to face Tangail in Biman Cup final

Sports Reporter

Khulna squeezed past Sylhet 3-2 in penalty shoot-out to set a final date with defending champions Tangail in the Biman Cup under-14 football championship.

In the first semifinal at the Mirpur Stadium yesterday, both teams failed to score in the regulation 80 minutes and also in the extra 20 minutes to have the match carried over to tie-breaker.

Khalid Saidullah, M Awal and Mafizul Islam found the net for the winners while Mukhter Hossain and Humayun Kabir scored for Sylhet.

Communications Minister Oli Ahmed, who is also the president of the Bangladesh Football Federation, is expected to watch the final as chief guest with State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism M A Mannan as a special guest.

Sixty-two district teams, divided in to eight zones, battled it out in the first phase for the zonal championships. The eight zonal winners then joined defending champions Tangail in the final round.

All for Miandad

KARACHI, Apr 10: Five Pakistan cricket fans began a hunger strike on Saturday to try to force officials to recall the country's most successful batsman, Javed Miandad, to the national team, reports Reuters.

We demand inclusion of Javed Miandad in the national team. Ghulam Mohammad Khan, secretary of the Pakistan Sports Welfare Association and leader of the five hunger strikers, said in an interview.

Miandad, 36, announced his retirement from international cricket last Thursday, saying his decision was prompted by a decision by the Board of Control for Cricket in Pakistan (BCCP) to drop him from the team for the Australasia Cup in Sharjah next week.

Miandad was also excluded from the Pakistan team which toured New Zealand earlier this year. The Sharjah one-day international competition between India, Pakistan, Australia, New Zealand, Sri Lanka and the United Arab Emirates is due to start on April 13.

Miandad played 124 Tests, scoring 8,832 runs with the help of 23 centuries and 43 half-centuries. He also held 93 catches.

He is the third-highest Test run scorer in history behind Allan Border of Australian and Indira Sunil Gavaskar.

BCCP officials said Miandad's recent performances had not met their expectations.

Inter-club tennis

Dhaka Club and Gulshan Club moved into the finals of the Gulshan Club tennis tournament, beating their respective semifinal opponents by similar margin of 3-2 at the club courts, reports BSS.

Dhaka Club beat American Club while Gulshan Club defeated Officers' Club.

The final will be held tomorrow at 5 pm. Industries Minister A M Zahiruddin Khan, who is also president of the Bangladesh Tennis Federation, will watch the final as chief guest.

The nine-team meet began on April 3.

Navy v'ball from today

KAPTAI, Apr 10: The annual volleyball championship of Bangladesh Navy begins here tomorrow (Monday) at BNS Shaheed Moazzem, reports UNB.

Eight teams from different ships and establishment of Bangladesh Navy will take part in the four-day meet, said a ISPR press release.

Sampras, Date Japan Open winners

TOKYO, Apr 10: Pete Sampras, blasting at least one ace in each service game, overwhelmed American compatriot Michael Chang 6-4, 6-2 Sunday, winning his second consecutive Japan Open tennis championship, reports AP.

Japan's Kimiko Date, rebounding from a 0-4 first-set deficit, beat American Amy Frazier 7-5, 6-0 and won the women's singles title for the third consecutive year.

Date earned $13,500 while Frazier took home $13,500.

The men's doubles title went to the Swedish pair of Henrik Holm and Anders Jarryd, who defeated American Patrick McEnroe and Canadian Sebastien Lareau 7-6 (7-4), 6-1.

The Swedes split $13,500 and the losing pair dirts $3,500.

Brothers Union's woe continues

Sports Reporter

While arch-rivals Mohammedans and Abahani officials continued in a pushful vein to set their house in order, Brothers Union incurred more losses on the second day of the inter-club players' transfers yesterday.

Regarded as the third force in the domestic football, quite ineffectually though, since they are yet to justify their rating by halting the Mohammedan-Abahani monopoly at least for once, Brothers Union yesterday lost the trio of Nurul Huq Manik, Parvez and Riaz.

Star midfielder Manik, the only player out of the 53 token collectors of the day to be represented by somebody else, is all set to join Mohammedans. Some relief for the black and white officials, who were left in the lurch by a sensational move on the first day of players' transfer on Saturday. Some of the top national players, some of whom belonged to Mohammedans, left for unfancied Muktiyoddha Sangsad as a retaliatory action against the club officials.

Officials of the three top clubs had earlier formed a pool of top 21 players with a view to ensuring their services for their respective last season clubs. Cornered in such a fashion, these players rustled up under the banner of the Football Players' Welfare Association (FPWA) to break away from the stranglehold of the back-scratching alliance of club officials, hence the desertion for lesser name, maybe or may not be for more money.

Joining Manik in Mohammedans will be defender Parvez while frontliner Riaz is all set to sign for Wari. Tall defender Rouf Babul will also be there severing relationship with Farashganj.

In a dramatic move Dhanmendi's left back Neera too joined Mohammedans. He was earlier expected to submit his token in favour of neighbours Abahani Krira Chakra. The little defender had earlier played for the sky blues.

It was a day of consolidation for Mohammedans, who succeeded in retaining mid-fielder Mahbubur Rahman Roxy alongside acquiring Shakil from Abahani and Zahid from Muktiyoddha. The black and whites joined the spate of sensation on the opening day when they roped in Abahani defenders Rehan and Alamgir on the inaugural day.

Abahani Krira Chakra were on a youth trip bolstering the bench strength with some useful signings. One of their notable signing yesterday was Muktiyoddha's young marksman Masudur Rahman Rana, who scored 12 goals last season.

Agrani Bank's defender Raj was the other player to join Abahani's youth army comprising Mansur, Saidur, Shammim, Montu, Mintu, Dhanu, Tutul, Partha, Sohel, Imadul and Sufian.

Saidur, who played for FWD last year, was the reserve player of the national team while the dark tall Tutul, has been the thorn in the flesh of opposition defenders for the last couple of years.

Sabatini gets into groove

AMELIA ISLAND, Florida, Apr 10: Gabriela Sabatini rediscovered her long missing top form and stands poised to claim her first title in nearly two years after an impressive semifinal victory at the Bausch and Lomb tennis championships on Saturday, reports Reuters.

The fourth-seeded Argentine, looking to end a 32-tournament title drought, played an aggressive match to oust sixth-seeded American Lindsay Davenport 6-4, 6-2.

To win her first tournament since upsetting Monica Seles at the 1992 Italian Open, Sabatini will have to beat top-seeded defending champion Arantxa Sanchez-Vicario.

The speedy Spaniard wore down third-seeded sentimental favourite Martina Navratilova 6-4, 6-3 in 70 minutes to set up today's clash with Sabatini.

The 37-year-old Navratilova, a three-time champion here who is playing her final year of singles on the women's tour, had beaten Sanchez in 13 of their previous 14 meetings.

She had already downed ninth seed Amanda Coetzer and seventh seed Mary Pierce on the way to her first final since losing the German Open to Steffi Graf last May.

The sixth-ranked Sabatini suddenly appears to have rediscovered her talent as well as the attacking game that brought her lone Grand Slam title at the 1990 US Open.
