Zakia regains top spot

Sports Reporter

Holder Zakia Sul-tana who made a poor start in the 15th national women's chess championship bounced back in to the lead after defeating International Women's Master (IWM) Rani Hamid in the third round at the National Sports Council chess room yesterday. The participant from Narayanganj now shares the lead along with Shabana Parvin Nipa with both collecting two and a half points.

Zakia playing with white pieces adopted the Queen Pawn opening and stranded Rani Hamid in the 38th move to earn a crucial win.

Shabana Parvin following her two successive wins settled for a draw in her third match against Tantima after the 38th move.

Selina Banu and Jahanara Haque also won their respective matches with the former raising her collection to one and a half points, beating Afzana Parvin Nira while Jahanara playing her second match opened her account defeating Nurjahan on the 45th move.

The other match of the day between Babli and Rokshana Gulshan was heading for a draw when reports last came in.

Hanif's kudos to Lara

ISLAMABAD, Apr 20: Pakistan's former Test opener Hanif Mohammad, who is himself the world's fourth highest individual scorer, praised the West Indian cricket player Brian Lara Tuesday for breaking the world record individual innings of 375 against England, reports AFP.

Hanif, who saw Sir Gary Sobers hit 365 not out against Pakistan as a fielder at Kingston, Jamaica, said Lara had already established himself as a superstar internationally at the age of just 24.

ST JOHN'S, Antigua, Apr 20: Indian Sachin Tendulkar is the only batsman in the world currently playing near the level of record-breaking Brian Lara, according to England team manager Keith Fletcher, reports AFP.

They are different types of players, Fletcher said as he reflected on Lara's world record 375 for the West Indies.

Lara is a crowd pleaser.

while Tendulkar is less flamboyant, in the Sunil Gavaskar mould.

"But from what I have seen, Lara is probably the number one batsman in the world. He can destroy an attack, and when he is out there, he is always scoring runs. I'd pay to watch him bat."

Fletcher believes Lara's time with Warwickshire this summer will make him an even better player.

With the West Indies due to tour England in 1995, the one-year contract could offer the left-hander valuable experience of English conditions.

Lara toured England with the West Indies in 1991, but failed to make the Test side, averaging only 28, with 341 runs in eight matches.

But prolonged exposure to the vagaries of English pitches should ensure he improves on those figures in 1995.

Fletcher said: "He has got to learn to play the ball moving off the seam, which you don't encounter too much over here. And he must tighten his game up."

"He has got the ability to do that, and if he wasn't playing for a county, he would probably be playing in the leagues, so he would get used to conditions anyway."

Fletcher was still happy to praise Lara's innings, which broke the 36-year-old mark of Sir Gary Sobers, who scored 365 not out against Pakistan in 1958.

"To get 375 without giving a chance says it all really."

"We tried hard to stop him breaking the record and his last fifty was his worst."
