Indefinite sit-in by striking teachers May 11

The striking teachers of non-government schools and colleges will begin an indefinite sit-in in front of the Central Shaheed Minar on May 11 to press for realisation of their demands, reports UNB.

The Central Action Liaison Committee of the teachers at a meeting Wednesday also decided to donate one month's grant received from the government to the cyclone victims. The amount is estimated at Tk 1.5 crore.

The meeting reaffirmed that the strike which began April 18 would continue till realisation of their four-point demands, including benefits as enjoyed by the government teachers.

The liaison committee claimed more than 1.5 lakh teachers continued the strike despite government attempt to divide them.

Education Ministry, however, said more than 50 per cent of the striking teachers had joined their duties.
