Rajshahi in grip of severe drought

RAJSHAHI, May 12: Rajshahi district is under the grip of severe drought due to scanty rainfall during the last three months, reports BSS. Official sources said that only one inch rainfall was recorded in the district as compare to over 70 inches during the same period last year.

Water level of river Padma at Rajshahi was recorded at 8.86 metre on May 10 last. The source said ground water level has gone down in many areas from 30 feet to 60 feet. River ponds and other water sources are being dried up due to prevailing drought condition and adverse affect of Farakka. Irrigation in the farm land has been badly affected, the sources added.

Agriculture Department sources said that cultivation of Aus, broadcasting Aman, jute and sugarcane will be affected due to water crisis. Agriculture department has fixed the target to cultivate jute in six thousand five hundred and forty hectare. Aus in 32 thousand hectares, broadcasting Aman in 14 thousand hectares and sugarcane in 19 thousand six hundred and fifty hectares of land in the district during the current season.

Meanwhile, 32 thousand hectares of land was brought under Boro cultivation in the district, the sources added.

Dada Bhai gets Shishu Academy award
