RDRS denies press report
By Staff Correspondent
Rangpur Dinajpur Rural Service (RDRS) has termed a report published in a section of the press which said that the RDRS had dismissed 156 of its staff members by closing down 50 development projects.
In a clarification issued yesterday, the RDRS, an NGO, said it had no option but to reduce the size of infrastructure building operation under its Rural Works Project (RWP) since donors' funds for RWP had now dried up. Therefore, RDRS was reducing the RWP staff by about 50 per cent (75 out of 150) and integrating them with the 1300 staff in the Comprehensive Project, it added.
The clarification further said that the RDRS's larger human development project — Comprehensive Project — which employed over 1300 staff in 28 thanas of greater Rangpur and Dinajpur districts, continued to receive donors' interest and support.
