Khaleda pays tribute to poet Nazrul

Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia yesterday paid high tribute to national poet Kazi Nazrul Islam marking his 95th birth anniversary saying his patriotism and writings would always inspire us in our efforts to build a happy and prosperous Bangladesh upholding the independence and sovereignty, reports BSS.

Describing the national poet as a shining star in the arena of Bengali language and literature, the Prime Minister said his multi-diversified creative literary works had raised the prestige of Bengali language and literature.

In a message on the eve of the 95th birth anniversary of the national poet, Begum Zia recalled Nazrul's inspiring contribution to the country's war of independence, pioneering role in the Muslim renaissance in the sub-continent and uncompromising struggle against exploitation, deprivation and injustice throughout his life by his powerful writings.

BCL Khulna city unit expels seven

KHULNA, May 20: The Bangladesh Chhatra League Khulna city unit today expelled seven members of its executive committee on charge of anti-organisation activities, reports UNB.

City committee president Ashraful Islam and general secretary Saiful Islam ordered the expulsion of the seven, including ex-VP of the Boira Govt Women's College Afsana Ahsan Daisy, Pioneer Women's College unit president Latifa Khanom, Nargis Sultana Roni, Shoma Akhtar and Anwar Hossain.

The expulsions seem to be outcome of intra-party feud in Khulna Chhatra League over the just-ended union elections in the Boira Govt Women's College.

Protesting the expulsions, Khulna district Chhatra League president Rafiqur Rahman told local journalists this evening that the city committee decision was unconstitutional and urged the higher body of the organization to disapprove it.
