Deputy Leader in Parliament Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chowdhury speaking at the first annual convention of the Lions Club International District 315 B-2 in the city yesterday.

'Build social awareness to combat deadly diseases'

Deputy Leader in Parliament Prof A Q M Badruddoza Chowdhury yesterday called upon all individuals, groups and organisations to come forward to help build a self-reliant Bangladesh, reports UNB.

"We all should unitedly help our distressed people to face natural calamities with our own resources", Chowdhury said while addressing the inaugural session of the annual district convention of the Lions Club International district 315 B-2 Bangladesh at a city hotel yesterday morning.

He also formally inaugurated the two day district convention-1994 of the club.

Dr Chowdhury called upon the voluntary organisations including the Lions Club to put their best efforts in implementing government programmes such as education, afforestation and health care.

The Deputy Leader underlined the need for building social awareness to combat the diseases like hepatitis B-virus, AIDS and other vulnerable diseases transmitted through blood transfusion.

Roland Grafe, Charge d'Affaires of the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany, presenting books on cardiovascular surgery to the Director General of Medical Services in the city recently.

BCS (Edn) threatens action

By Staff Correspondent

The BCS General Education Association has decided to start an agitation demanding the implementation of their 16-point demands including the withdrawal of non-teacher officers from the Education Department.

The decision was taken at an extended meeting of its National executive committee on Tuesday. The meeting was held at the Teachers Training College with Dr Q A T M Habibur Rahman in the chair.

The meeting criticised the transfer of some teachers. They appealed to the authorities not to transfer or take punitive action against any teacher without investigation.

Conditions:

Bids: Tenders must be submitted in sealed envelopes in the tender box to be kept at Commission's Administrative Division (11th floor) on June 16, 1994 at 12:00 noon. It will be opened on the same day at 12:15 PM in the presence of bidders (if any).

Each suppliers may present one bid only. Commission will not be bound to accept the lowest tender and will reserve the right to reject any or all tenders without assigning any reason thereof.

Bidders must enclose Payment Order/Bank Draft equivalent of 2.5% of the quoted prices as earnest money (refundable) from any Scheduled Bank in Bangladesh with the offer favouring "Bangladesh Tariff Commission, Agrani Bank, Curzon Hall Branch, Dhaka." Offer without earnest money will be rejected and will disqualify the entire bid.

Installation: Dealers will be responsible for installation of server, all workstations and peripherals, cables and configuration of Novell Network software. All PC workstations must be able to download DOS and Windows applications and data before the installation is considered complete.

In addition, the supplier will be expected to link the RISC-based workstation with the Novell server and establish reliable communications. Finally, the supplier will be required to establish Novell links with an Apple Local-Talk network. The Novell network, the RISC-based workstation, and the Apple must all be able to communicate and transfer data transparently before the installation is considered complete. Plugs on computer equipment must fit into receptacles of all power protection equipment, and BTC's wall sockets.

All equipment must be 220V or 220V-convertible.

Compatibility: All software listed under Microcomputer Local Area Network Software (see- 27-47) must be compatible with the operating system and networking software for the network. Each software listed above under RISC Workstation software (items 48-54) must be UNIX compatible versions of that software and conform to X-Open standards.

Similarly, all peripherals must be compatible with the quoted computer system. In particular, the printer and plotter must be compatible with the hardware and software. The UPS and stabilizer must be capable of supporting the power requirements of the workstation.

The workstation must be able to support a plotter, Postscript printer and high-speed printer (Epson DFX-5000) simultaneously, without requiring manual control. Any reliable automatic method is acceptable, whether by installing three parallel ports, using an automatic switching device, or some other approach.

Training: Suppliers are expected to provide training so that computer staff can use the operating system, plus install and operate application software on the hardware. This is especially true for the RISC system.

Warranty: All hardware — computers, monitors, keyboards, and mice, plus printers, print server adapters, hub, cables, power protection equipment and other peripherals — must carry a three-year warranty (or combination of warranty and service contract with spares for three years) for service and parts from the date of the commission of the computer systems.

Delivery: Bids in response to tenders must include statement listing the expected time the computers will arrive in Bangladesh, clear customs, and be delivered to BTC.

Malpractice at BTV alleged

By Staff Correspondent

A group of TV artistes yesterday alleged that malpractice by some producers had forced them to stay out of the screen.

The performers made the allegations at a press conference at the Jatya Press Club. It was arranged by Gazi Khurshid uz-Zaman Utpal, a drama artiste.

Utpal accused a producer of dropping him from a recent TV series.

"I signed a contract to play a role in the drama series ... I got the script and even performed in the first part of the serial ... but the producer phoned me saying that the playwright had decided to change the script and drop the character which I was supposed to portray," Utpal alleged.

Utpal also alleged that earlier this particular producer had demanded Tk 5000 from him for each series, which he refused to pay.

Among others, Ziaul Huda Ujjal, Babul Ahmed, Mohon Khan, Kazi Asad, Anisur Rahman, Aminul Huq, Obayedul Huq Sarker, Khalilur Rahman Khan and Saifuddin expressed their grievances against some other producers without mentioning names.

They demanded removal of the producer concerned and threatened to go on a token hunger strike.

They said that because of the malpractice of some producers, enlisted TV performers were not getting programmes.

Chehlum

Chehlum of late Quazi Shamsul Huda, retired Joint Secretary, of Godalpur Kazi Bari, Paikgachha thana of Khulna district will be held today at 5 pm at his Dhanmondi residence, says a press release.

The deceased's family express their sincere gratitude and thanks to all friends and relatives who sympathised with the bereaved family.

The chehlum of the late S M Ahsan, former Additional Inspector General of Police and Director General of the IMED, will be held today after the Asar prayers at the residence of the deceased at House 10A, Road 142, Gulshan, says a press release.

The chehlum of late Prof Wadudur Rahman will be held today at his home in Village Balia, Thana Dhamrai, after Jumma prayers.
