From Staff Correspondent
CHITTAGONG, Aug 29: Minister for Forests and Environment Akbar Hossain said that Muktijoddha Sangsad was formed with the intention of keeping it above all politics to safeguard the interests of freedom fighters as well as the country's independence and sovereignty.

The minister was addressing as chief guest a function organised here Sunday by the Muktijoddha Krira Chakra at its office on the occasion of Eid-e-Miladunnabi and its conference.

The function chaired by the president of the Krira Chakra Mazaherul Islam and was also attended by the mayor of Chittagong City Corporation ABM Mohiuddin Chowdhury.

M Shamsul Alam, chairman of the Krira Chakra governing body, Dipankar Talukder, MP, Zafar Ahmed Chowdhury, chairman, UCBL, SM Fazlul Haque, vice president of the BGMEA, Zakir Hossain Mizan, former president of the Muktijoddha Krira Chakra, Gias Uddin Kaji, general secretary of the organisation and Syed Abul Basheer, commander of the city Muktijoddha Sangsad also addressed the function.

The minister urged the freedom fighters to come forward to participate in constructive nation-building activities.

4 BCL (B-K) activists roughed up on campus

Four activists of JSD (Inu) backed Chhatra League were roughed up allegedly by supporters of another student organisation near Teacher-Students Centre (TSC) of Dhaka University last night, campus sources said, reports UNB.

Among those attacked, Rezaul Haque Reza was admitted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital with serious injury. Three others — Dabir Uddin, Shamim Ahsan and Mizanur Rahman — were given first aid. Several rounds of gunshots were heard on the campus soon after the incident.

Abdullah Quyum, General Secretary of JSD's student wing Chhatra League, blamed pro-Awami League Chhatra League for the attack.

He alleged that the attackers were planning to sabotage today's march of Sampradikata Birodhi Chhatra Samaj towards the Prime Minister's office.

Both the Chhatra Leagues are members of the Chhatra Samaj, an alliance of anti-communal student organisations.

Vice Chancellor Prof. Emajuddin Ahmed assured the leaders of pro-JSD Chhatra of action against the culprits after they staged a demonstration in front of his residence and brought out processions in different residential halls of the university.

Blasphemy law issue Menon slates govt silence

By Staff Correspondent

Bangladesh Workers' Party leader Rashed Khan Menon MP yesterday criticised the government's alleged silence regarding the demand for a blasphemy law by the fundamentalists.

He was speaking at a meeting organised by the Youth Unity of Bangladesh.

"The Jamaat axis has raised this demand to legalise their politics of killing," Menon said. The discussion meeting was chaired by the Unity's president Fazle Hossain Bada. It was participated by its general secretary, Dr Syed Hashemi, Jatiya Samik Federation general secretary Tipu Biswas, Krishak Samity leader Khandker Ali Abbas, and Khet Majur Union leader Saiful Haq. Tipu Biswas said if a blasphemy law was enacted, both the Prime Minister and the leader of the Opposition would have to quit politics as they were women.

Khandker Ali Abbas supported this view saying a blasphemy law would help the fundamentalists to repress the women of the country.
