Anniversary of death of Dr Ibrahim today

By JU Correspondent
Bangladesh Chhatria Union (BCU) Jahangirnagar University (JU) unit submitted a memorandum to the vice chancellor (VC) yesterday demanding immediate solution to different problems of the university.

In the memorandum, the BCU threatened a militant agitation programme if their demands were not met. The demands include implementation of the academic calendar, solution to the telephone problem, improvements in the medical centre, convocation and appointment of the prime minister as the chancellor instead of the president.

BCU also brought out processions and organised a rally on the first day of its agitation programme which they called "Our campus our right, save the campus join the fight."
